AMHAY Merit Program

Black Hawk Level

MISSION

The AMHA Youth Programs are designed to help our youth become educated horsemen who are civically minded, passionate advocates of the Morgan Horse as well as advocates of horse sport and horse ownership.

RULES

1. This program is open to AMHAY members, 21 years and under, who are interested in learning more about Morgans and safe horsemanship while participating in Morgan promotion and community service.

2. There are 5 levels of achievement once AMHA Youth membership has been established:

- 1) Bulrush
- 2) Woodbury
- 3) Sherman
- 4) Black Hawk
- 5) Justin Morgan

Information on the first two levels is available at www.morganhorse.com

3. Level requirements do not need to be completed at the same time, although you must complete one level before progressing to the next.

4. Complete the checklist at the end of this packet and email to Nicole@morganhorse.com

5. Members may work on the merit levels as individuals or in a youth Team. The first two levels may be completed with any horse, but third level and above needs to be completed with a Morgan Horse.

AMHAY Merit Program

Black Hawk Level

INTRODUCTION

In this level of the Merit Program, you will be expected to demonstrate many skills and levels of Horsemanship, as well as document your experiences in the many facets of the equine industry. You will also be expected to contribute to your community by performing hours of community service.

The documentation of completion of this level will be in many forms. You will be required to video tasks, write essays, take photographs, and supply paperwork from places that you will be completing some of your requirements.

The first step to completing this level is to submit the application in the packet and send it to nicole@morganhorse.com.

You will also be required to sign all of the press release forms in this packet and send in with your application. This will allow AMHA to use the documentation in media and education related to our Merit Program.

Once your application is approved, you can then move on to complete the four phases of this level that include:

- Horsemanship
- Experiences/Internships/Exposures
- Tasks
- Community Service
