Dear Sirs,

I received your terrific magazine for my birthday. I think it is the best magazine on the market.

I don't own any horses, but I'm hoping for one.

Would you consider using the enclosed poem in your magazine?

PONIES

By Sally Fischel

Chestnut, pinto, black or bay,
Every pony seems to say,
"Can you catch and bridle me?"
"What a fine game this will be!"
Try as hard as you are able,
To get the pony to the stable,
Pony won't be caught just now,
He is having fun — and how!
Soon pony tires of his game,
And hopes that you have done the same,

No longer does he buck and squeal,
Because he wants his noonday meal.
A meal of oats and bran and hay,
To give him energy today,
And now you ride him but it's risky,
Because his lunch has made him frisky.

Then presently he settles down,
And stops behaving like a clown,
He canters well on either lead,
He's being good as gold, indeed!
When you're finished with your ride
You pat the pony's little side,
You cool him off, and feed him well,
And tell him that you think he's swell!

Spotlight on Morgans

Guest Editorial from GEORGE B. RUSSELL of the N. Y. Daily News

The problem of getting good national as well as local publicity for the Morgan breed is one in which every Morgan owner and breeder can take a hand. Even the mere Morgan enthusiast and fan can be of great help. The writer knows, for having decided this year to make an all-out effort to help promote this year's National Morgan Horse Show, I can report these developments.

One of our club's first good breaks came when the sports commentator-columnist Jimmy Powers repeated his 1956 performance and gave us a whole half column of space in his Powerhouse column in the New York Daily News on Thursday, July 25th.

Earlier, I had sent releases (including some background on Morgans generally) to NBC Monitor and to all the Television chains and Newsreels. Two of the latter responded by sending cameramen from Boston to cover our show. Harry Manas of "News of the Day" came on Sunday . . . and despite some rainy weather, shot footage that was used in the Telenews Sports reel. This News of the Day assures me, was sent to at least fifty TV stations across the nation.

Unfortunately this footage did not get into the John Daly TV newscast over WABC-TV here in New York. But our Newsreels here had it. And when we returned from vacation, Sunday, August 4th, we saw our Morgans on display at the Grand Central Terminal Newsreel theater. The Manager informed me that it had been there since July 31st and that it was running through to midnight August 6th. Plenty of still-picture publicity shots from our Morgan show were in the lobby too.

Next, I checked with NBC on they coverage they gave our show via Monitor. And they assured me that the tape recording made on Saturday from the fair grounds with Mrs. Greenwalt in on the interview, was aired nationally over NBC Monitor at 1:05 Sunday afternoon, July 28th.

As for the newsreel footage shot on Friday, July 26th by Universal's Phil Coolidge of Boston, that, the company informs me, is being held as "timeless material" for future release. They have promised to inform us promptly when this film on the first day activities of our show will be released to their subscriber theaters.

To all our Morgan friends may I say this, let's all drop a line to the people who came through for us this year. Write Jimmy Powers at the New York Daily News or care of the Gillette Cavalcade of Sports. Again, any line of thanks to "News of the Day" will insure newsreel cooperation at our 1958 show. Also, we should all write Universal and ask them to release their Morgan show footage promptly. And let's not forget that old standby, RADIO, and the help given us by NBC Monitor.

Incidentally, on this subject of publicity, let's not neglect our own excellent Morgan Horse Magazine. More and more, as people across the country start getting acquainted with the Morgan story, they will want to read more about Morgans. This writer knows from experience how such readers cherish every article, advertisement and picture printed and how they are filed away for reference. I subscribe to a half dozen horse magazines and not one touches ours for general reader interest. It deserves greater advertising support and more picture cooperation. We owe it to ourselves and the Morgan breed to help this magazine grow and prosper.

One thing more. Let's not neglect any local opportunities to get on neighborhood radio and TV stations and talk Morgans. I hope to work on the TV and Newsreel people as well as the Radio chains again next year. I also feel that with a proper barrage of letters next

President's Corner

"Magnificent" is the only word I can think of at the present moment to describe our 1957 National Morgan Horse Show. Quality, quantity, uniformity, expertly conditioned horses, excellent judging, and wonderful sportsmanship only partially describes the show. One has to see and participate to appreciate how far we have come in the last ten years. My congratulations to all!

I believe Mr. Hazard from Kansas takes the honors as exhibitor coming the farthest distance. Kansas, Illinois, Michigan, Indiana, Ohio, Pennsylvania, New Jersey, New York, and all the New England states were represented.

Each year I marvel at the fine competitive sportsmanship displayed among Morgan breeders. We all think we have the best horse, and that is as it should be, but when we get into the ring with others we find it may be that the other fellow has one just a little better. With nearly 300 Morgans exhibited, someone has to leave the ring without a ribbon. We should give some "good sportsmanship" ribbons.

In behalf of the Morgan Horse Club I want to take this opportunity to thank everyone who helped make the show the success it was. Without them, the show would not be possible. I won't attempt to mention any names, as many people gave generously of their time and talent. Seth Armen, our manager, deserves the gratitude of all the breeders. He worked day and night to keep things rolling. Seth's teaching position is going to require all of his time next year, so we have to look for another manager. A special "Thank you," Seth, from all of us.

Yearly I have asked for suggestions for improvement, and have received very little response. I cannot believe the show is so good that it cannot be improved. So let us have your suggestions while the show is fresh in our minds.

The directors' meeting held Friday A. M. and Sunday A. M. were very well attended. Two men were interviewed for the position of secretary, and others are being interviewed by the directors. We will be pleased to have suggestions relative to this position.

MORGAN HORSE SHOW

290 Horses in 68 classes from 13 states of All Breed Shows.

Also 1st Stallions under Saddle, 1st Stallions 4 and over, 1st in Harness.

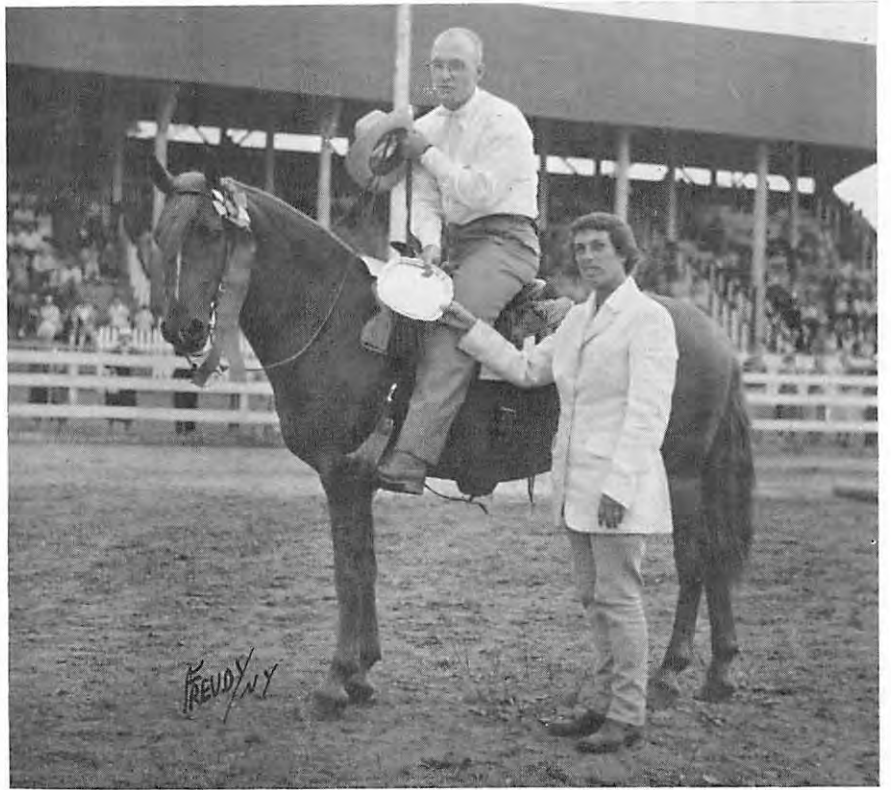

Able writers have judiciously used all the superlatives from our "horsey dictionary" in years past to describe this annual extravaganza of the horse world. This year we can think of nothing to add to these descriptions of other years as we tell of this Show of Shows. We cannot fail to marvel at a show which has doubled in size in 10 years, yet continues to be smoothly run with ever increasing efficiency.

We remember the large crowds (and the rain) at the Vermont shows in Windsor, but they were dwarfed by this year's attendance. We remember the fine horses, but the quality of this year's entries has probably never been equaled. The showmanship of the exhibitors was professional and the judging was handled with dispatch and efficiency.

We were glad to be reminded of the shows of previous years by again seeing the Orcutt, Tompkins, Owens and the Elas. Yes there was also Sadwin. Surely this grand old mare deserves a retirement ceremony at a future show, in the meantime she continues her winning ways in pleasure classes.

DAMSEL - - Retirement Ceremony

Following is a copy of the script read by Announcer Smith during last day of the show with Damsel in the ring supported by her descendants.

In 1907 the United States Morgan Horse Farm began breeding activities at Weybridge, Vermont. Over the next several years the best mares available were assembled from all parts of the country. So it was, that in 1926, the government farm purchased the 4-year old mare Florette from J. C. Brunk of Illinois. Incidentally, Florette left behind a weanling stud namely Flyhawk, who since that time has autographed the papers of many a good mid-western Morgan. The senior stallion at Middlebury at this time was Bennington, best known for his offsprings out of Artemisia—Mansfield Ulysses, Canfield, and Querido.

Florette, bred to the 24 year old Bennington, produced in 1933 the mare foal, Damsel, which we honor today.

This mare thus combines the blood of two great bands of Morgans — the former U. S. Morgan Horse Farm at Weybridge, Vt. and the J. C. Brunk band of Springfield, Illinois — and she is also one of the last living offspring of the stallion Bennington. Damsel is still owned by the United States Department of Agriculture, but has been on lease to the University of Massachusetts since 1950. She has been successfully handled at the recent National Shows by Gwen Nelson Chorak, under the guidance of her father, Dick Nelson, horseman at the University.

Damsel is now 24 years old, and is one of the best living representatives of Morgan productivity and durability. To many Morgan enthusiasts she has been THE model mare of the breed. But, good conformation in a horse is somewhat of a luxury. The ability to move is still however, a necessity. This is one mare that can certainly get out of her own way. She is also one of the truest going mares with good natural action that have entered this ring.

Her show career started before the war with the National Shows held at Upwey Farms in South Woodstock, Vt.

In 1941, Damsel placed 1st in mares and foals with her first foal Lakewood. In 1942 she repeated, and won the class again with her 2nd foal, Meadowlark. Then she entered the produce class with these first two offsprings and won that class. After the war she came back to take the mares and foals class again with the stud foal Triumph in 1949.

However, most of us remember best the way she celebrated her 20th birthday at Northampton in 1953. To prove that she still looked good she placed 1st in mares and foals with Admiral, the 4th time she had taken the class at the National Show. She was 2nd in model mares 4 years and over and 2nd in mares and produce. To prove that she could still move, she entered two road hack classes, placing 1st in the "Maiden" and 2nd in the "Open."

But, that is not all. Between 1941 and 1957 this mare found time to produce 12 foals — 7 studs and 5 fillies. In order of birth they were: Lakewood and Meadowlark, both by Goldfield; Narcissa and Olivia, both by Canfield; Quotient and Triumph, both by Mentor; Bay State Whippoorwill by Ranier; B. S. Admiral by Meade; B. S. Bounty and B. S. Damsette by U. S. Panez; and this year's foal B. S. Estrelita by Parade. One more offspring is neither seen or heard; he is by Upwey Ben Don and the delivery date is set for May, 1958.

Since all the sons and daughters of this mare are unavailable, her descendants in the University band have volunteered to support the old girl. Arranged in lines behind her, and lengthwise of the ring, are a son and two daughters; a grandson and 4 granddaughters; a great grandson and two great granddaughters; and finally a great great granddaughter; almost the entire band.

In National shows held at Northampton this group has taken home 8 trophies and 40 ribbons with a few championship ribbons among them.

A few questions automatically arise from the exhibition of such a group. First, in what other species does the great grandmother and the great granddaughter foal the same year!

But, more important, what other matriarch can present such a show of force or have as much influence on a breeding program?

Whenever a breeder is blessed with a broodmare and descendants of this quality, it is much easier for the quality to go downward than upward, or even to remain stationary. We at the University therefore should like to publicly thank the Morgan breeders in New England for their interest and aid in our breeding program — with special thanks to Mrs. Ela, Mr. Davis, Mr. Ferguson, and Mr. Tompkins.

As we said earlier the mare Damsel was bred at the former U. S. Morgan Horse Farm. In 1928 the Animal Husbandry Division of the Bureau of Animal Industry of Washington transferred a man from the Federal Horse Breeding Station at Miles City, Montana to assume duties as Animal Husbandman in charge of the U. S. Morgan Horse Farm at Middlebury, Vt. This same person had graduated in animal husbandry from Iowa State College in 1915, and had received a master's degree in animal husbandry from Washington State College. He had served a short time as instructor in Animal husbandry at Washington, and then saw active duty in the Remount Service of the Army during World War I. After the war he was appointed to the Animal Husbandry Division in the U. S. Department of Agriculture, and, before going to Vermont, had spent most of his time in horse and mule research at the Federal Horse Breeding Station at Laramie, Wyoming, and later at Miles City.

The man and breeder of this mare obviously is Earl B. Krantz, 25 years a director of the Morgan Horse Club, and for as many years in charge of the Morgan Horse Farm. The farm was transferred to the Vermont Agricultural College and the horses were dispersed late in 1950. Earl Krantz retired from government service early in 1951. Those who attended the 1950 show at Windsor, saw his horses go out with a blaze of glory, when Riviera, Mentor and Stellar almost swept the show. In 1951, Earl saw his pride and joy, a yearling stallion representing his last foal crop, place 4th in a class of six. He had his reward last year when this same stallion became Grand Champion Stallion of

We enjoyed the well-filled classes yet without the long delays in judging which have been noted in some previous shows. We enjoyed the speed classes which have been added and made possible by the half-mile track. But most of all we noted the wide distribution of ribbons which proves our point that there are more good Morgans, owned by more good people than ever before.

We believe old Justin would indeed have been proud. We were!

This was Donfield's year — with a clean sweep of the Grand Championships: Model Stallion; Harness Horse; and Saddle Horse. This handsome chestnut son of Upwey Ben Don has been a constant winner since first annexing the stallion foal blue in 1951. Waseeka Farm has also been a winner since their first show in 1953 when their first Morgan, Varga Girl was pinned Grand Champion Mare. They give promise of continuing for many years to come with a stable of top Morgans.

It is satisfying to see Mrs. Power with Mr. and Mrs. Annis continue the tradition of the Morgan as a family horse. Theirs are truly enjoyed by the entire family, as is borne out by their entries in the lead-line classes.

One of the popular wins of the show was that of the Townshend Farm's Townsend Cornita who topped the best mares in the Morgan world to annex the Grand Championship for Mares. Previously she had kept the Townshend name to the front by winning the blue in the English Pleasure class, proving she was more than a model.

The Grand Champion Pleasure Horse of the show was Walthor, owned by Walter and Rheda Kane of Michigan. Some of our finest Morgans come from this area.

Show Sidelights

By RUSSELL E. SMITH, V. M. D.

The Seabrook four-in-hand hooked to a red and black park drag was the attraction of the show. Its numerous appearances on the track and infield during the show were greeted by enthusiastic applause. This team was trained and driven by Mr. Jack Seabrook, president of Seabrook Farms, Inc., of Seabrook, N. J. Jack Whitaker manager of Mr. Seabrook's Lead Bar Farms, was colorfully dressed as a coach guard, and announced each arrival on the coach horn.

The coach and four opened the show by delivering the officers of the Morgan Horse Club and local dignitaries from the hotel to the show grounds. Twelve people were seated topside, but few rode in the blue plush interior. The rear boot was equipped with two lead-lined ice chests for 36 quarts of champagne, and drawers for silver, fine china and glassware. Milk was substituted for the champagne when the coach crossed the New England border.

Another vehicle which graced the infield during the show was the hunting or shooting brake loaned for the occasion by the Warner Carters. The Seabrook four-in-hand is made up of Redstone 11005 and Captain Ken 9497, the leaders, and Bolinvar 10723 and Fort Knox 10385, the wheelers.

After the family class the Ela and Orcutt entries returned to the ring with Mrs. Brenton H. Dickson on the 26 year old mare, Sadwin. Mrs. Dickson at 80 years of age was proof that enthusiasm for Morgans and horsemanship never wanes. Dozens of children have come under Mrs. Ruth Dickson's wing, and have learned to know and to love Morgans. These same children, many now adult, chose this occasion to honor her with a small token of their appreciation. It was fitting that the momento was presented by Mr. Whitney Stone, treasurer of the Morgan Horse Club, Inc., son of a former president of the Club, and underwriter of Morgan horse activities for a generation. It would take a separate issue of the Magazine to pay proper tribute to his generosity.

The country driving class was enlivened by costumed passengers in stanhopes, Concord buggies, and a fancy buckboard complete with a mother-in-law seat in the rear. Costumes and antique vehicles could well be requirements for this class.

Then the rains came. The rain-makers in their efforts to combat the drought in southern New England were over-enthusiastic. Fortunately for the management most of the Saturday afternoon crowd was trapped in the grandstand to enjoy the misery of the exhibitors. In hand classes were substituted for performance classes and the show went on. 23 stallions and their exhibitors slogged about on the clay ring. Blacks, bays, liver and light chestnuts all turned the same shade — "wet chestnut." The only horse of a different color was the stud who had the poor judgment to rear, and suddenly became clay colored. The storm came in from the West about horizontal to the ground, abated, turned about and came back from the East. So the five year record of fair weather at Northampton ended.

The one-mile trotting race, pushed ahead because of Saturday's storm, was again greeted by rain at the start of Sunday's session. The two-year-old from Illinois won easily, but with little encouragement from his driver, who felt it best at the time to keep his mouth shut. The entries were good mudders, and one look at their drivers proved it. George Gobel may be a comedian, but to Morgan folks, he's quite a horse.

In order to avoid a class of forty mares 4 years old and over, the management decided upon two sections — for mares who had lived and for those who had not — on the basis of their foaling records.

The harness pair class was a beauty. Eight pairs were entered and six showed up in the ring. All pairs were beautifully matched in color, conformation, and stride. In fact all the harness classes were exceptional. The two and three year olds behaved admirably. No one tore up their harness or stove up their buggy just to hold the crowd's attention. The Junior Harness Stake was a worthwhile addition.

Two of our favorite cripples rode and drove. Ann Hopkins with a plaster cast on one foot rode in pleasure, trail, Western, and jumping classes with the benefit of only one stirrup. Pete Nelson worked his mare up to Junior Champion with the aid of a pair of crutches, and then drove her single and in pairs into the ribbons again. It would have tickled Frank Orcutt to see this "little creature" go.

The kids as usual were master showmen. We missed last year's comedian with the derby in the leadline class. But we had Gene Autry's successor who sang his way around the ring without benefit of guitar accompaniment.

Upwey Ben Don did it again. He won the get class for the fifth successive year, and so unnerved his owner that he forgot his entry for the Junior Champion Stallion Class. The colt got to the ring in record time escorted by a station wagon. He is already entered in next year's roadster classes since he passed the station wagon twice on the turns.

The trailer race was real honest. The ringmaster tightened all the tail gates! Exhibitors were somewhat stunned by the unanticipated delay. Our 26 year old favorite, Sadwin came in second. Since this class is usually her "meat," she is still mumbling about the placings.

Donfield finally caught up with Dona Lee. He duplicated her efforts of last year by winning the model, saddle, and harness championships. Ted Davis just sits back and rubs his hands while others run the shuttle service from stable to ring.

Sunday afternoon saw another mare and another breeder honored. The 24 year old Damsel was retired, and her breeder, Earl Krantz, was given a citation. To those who have followed the activities of such grand horses, these ceremonies are tear-jerkers. However we know of no finer way to pay tribute to horses or their breeders. The horses raised at the government farm by Earl Krantz are spread over the world. We feel Damsel was his best. Earl's citation was long over due.

ANNUAL REPORT

The Annual meeting of The Morgan Horse Club, Inc., was held in conjunction with other activities tied in with the National Morgan Horse Show held at Northampton, Massachusetts on July 26, 27 and 28.

Festivities began with a buffet dinner at the Northampton Hotel which was attended by well over a hundred members and their friends and families. The meeting followed directly thereafter at which there were forty-eight voting members present. All of this was on Thursday evening, July 25. The meeting was taken up mostly with the routine business of the Club, including reports of the Secretary and the Treasurer, and an extended report by the President of the progress being made in the solution of various problems before the Club.

There were members present from North Dakota, Minnesota, Illinois, Wisconsin, Michigan, Ohio, as well as from the New England and middle Atlantic States. It was a very representative group.

The slate of Directors as nominated by the President in his annual letter were elected for the following year.

These were:

Joseph R. Brunk, Illinois
Marilyn Childs, Pennsylvania
Frederick O. Davis, Vermont
Anna Ela, Massachusetts
Merle D. Evans, Ohio
J. Cecil Ferguson, Rhode Island
F. B. Hills, New York
Earl B. Krantz, Vermont
W. Lyman Orcutt, Jr., Massachusetts
Alexander G. Ruthven, Michigan
S. D. Sahlstrom, Minnesota
Gardner Smith, Washington
Whitney Stone, New York
Gerald F. Taft, Michigan
G. A. Wessitsh, California

Following the meeting, the remainder of the evening was devoted to a social get-together which was attended by the Mayor of the City and officers of the Tri-County Fair Association where this Morgan classic is held.

Reports As Presented At Annual Meeting

TREASURER'S REPORT

By WHITNEY STONE, Treasurer

The year 1956, from a financial standpoint, was the best year that the club has had. The income from membership increased slightly, and from registration and transfer fees to a gratifying degree. The greatest improvement was in connection with the Morgan Horse Magazine which showed a slight profit from publication amounting to $344, as compared with a deficit in 1955 amounting to over $6,000.

Registration fees amounted to $6,300, as compared with $5,200 the previous year. Transfer fees brought in a total of $4,100, as compared with $3,100 the previous year. The National Morgan Horse Show resulted in a profit of $2,770, compared with $2,480 the previous year.

As a new item, we received about $200 in royalties from the sale of the model Morgan items by the Balfour Company.

The result of all this is what might be called our normal income amounted to $16,000, as compared with $6,900 in 1955.

Our normal expenses in 1956 totalled about $7,200, as compared with $5,100 in 1955. While there was a slight increase in money spent for advertising, of which the total amounted to $2,700 our support of Morgan shows and activities other than the National Morgan Horse Show were increased to $2,100 compared with $1,300 the previous year. This item is probably destined to increase gradually in the future as we are called upon to provide trophies and otherwise support our local organizations. The normal office expenses such as supplies, etc. were approximately the same as in 1955.

Net income for 1956, amounted to $8,900, as compared with $1,700 in 1955.

This improvement in normal income of the Club made it possible to publish Volume VII of the Register without greatly reducing our reserve balance in the bank, which is being hoarded looking forward to the time when it will be needed in establishing a breed office and all that goes with it. SECRETARY'S REPORT

By F. B. HILLS, Secretary

The year 1956 showed a continued increase in the American Morgan Horse Register. There were 482 registrations, as compared with 452 in 1955. There were 611 transfers recorded in 1956, as compared with 475 in 1955. This marked increase in transfers shows the greater activity in the buying and selling of registered Morgan stock which appears to be continuing this year. Many buyers are new owners who may be expected in the future to widen the distribution of ownership and, in some cases, increase breeding operations. The correspondence in the Secretary's office with people in all sections of the United States continues to gain in volume.

There has been increased activity in many of the local breeders' groups. This is particularly notable in New England. In the last few years, Massachusetts has developed into one of the leading Morgan communities in the country. There have been sound gains in some of the middle western communities, notably Michigan and Minnesota. In the Northwest, a marked increase in interest is noted, particularly in Washington, which is a relatively new active Morgan community. In California, a new group was formed in the southern part of the state which it is hoped may develop to take the place of the organization there which fell to pieces some years ago, but which was very active ten or twelve years ago. New organizations of Morgan breeders came into being in Ohio and Illinois. The Mid-Atlantic Group had a most successful first show at Frederick, Maryland, which is relatively new Morgan territory. It attracted some of the leading Morgans, particularly in the East.

This activity is partly the result of the very successful tour made by Mr. Davis the President of the Club, over a period of four months, in which he visited practically all the active Morgan groups in the country. Naturally this gain needs to be followed up in order to be consistent.

Ohio Morgan Association

By ELEANOR BRACKMAN

Competition is keen here in Ohio as several top Morgans are battling it out for that beautiful trophy the OMHA is presenting to the high point horse at the close of the show season. One stallion that is a consistent winner wherever shown is Don Shook's Sea Breeze. He was COSCA Reserve Champion in the Plain Horse Division in 1955 and in 1956 winner of over 87 ribbons and trophies. He was a two-time ribbon winner at the Pennsylvania National Show in 1956 in Morgan classes. Until this year, there have been very few Morgan classes in Ohio and those showing Morgans had to go out of state to compete in Morgan classes or face open competition. It is gratifying, indeed, to see our Morgans meet this competition and best it proving the little Morgan superior in whatever he is asked to do. Not only is Sea Breeze a top show horse, but a fine sire as well. Pictured in this magazine are two of his offspring. One is a filly owned by Mrs. Charles Norris of Montrose, Ohio, and the other a stud colt owned by Mrs. Ruth A. Stewart of Akron.

Mr. and Mrs. Stewart are Morgan enthusiasts and have just become members of the OMHA. Mrs. Stewart used to teach equitation at the Ideal Riding Academy for Mr. Roth. Her mare, dam of the stud colt by Sea Breeze, was shipped in to her from Little Rock, Arkansas. She was often used from 8:00 a. m. to 5:00 p. m. five days a week and since then has proved her worth as a trail horse too. Mrs. Stewart writes of trail riding with fiends and their Arabians, but it was always the little Morgan mare that took the lead. The Arabs refused to cross creeks, etc. Her story is typical—if you want a job done well and easily, buy a Morgan. The stud colt, Sea Bee, though only four months old already knows how to lead well, load and unload. He shows a lot of action and they are hoping for a bright future for him.

Mr. Mattox reports the arrival of two stud colts by his stallion, Devan Chief. In the rush and excitement of preparing for the National he failed to tell me much about them except they are both spoken for. He must have two dandies.

Nevin Combs, trainer for Plainview Stables in Wooster, writes that at the present time he has seven registered Morgans in training and expects eight more within the next six months. He trained the stallion Devan Comet owned by Crabapple Valley Farms. Devan Comet is sired by Captor and out of Ceres making him a full brother to Sea Breeze. What a shame this fine stallion is not in the show ring.

Mr. Don I. Davis of Wapakenota, Ohio has sold his two Morgan mares to Mrs. John Junk of Mt. Sterling. Both mares he raised and are unspoiled with wonderful dispositions. The younger, Mamie Dee, was sired by Devan Comet out of Jane Allen and the other, Lady of Leisure was sired by Lamont out of Jane Allen. Both are chestnuts and Lady has a flaxen mane and tail. Mrs. Junk also owns their dam, Jane Allen. They are to be used as brood mares to replace the fine old brood mare, Valentine, who died July 1st of natural causes.

Valentine was 19 years old and the dam of Big Bill B, Nugget's Val Hawk, Captain McKutchin and Shoo Shoo, all by Nugget. There are probably others I don't know about as she was bred by the L. U. Sheep Co., Dickie, Wyoming and sired by Linspar out of Valerie by Flyhawk.

Something new has been added to Sugar Run Farm that's the "pride and joy" of manager, Joe Bukey. A "Maternity ward" has just been completed. It contains two 12x15 box stalls fully insulated, a small waiting room with built in medicine cabinets, and so arranged that they can be viewed from the office which is equipped with telephone, sofa, easy chairs, and of course TV. It can also be heated if needed. It's ideal and since all their brood mares choose to foal after midnight, it was something that was badly needed.

Our young stallion, King, is home from the Vet-Clinic at Ohio State University well and sound and already getting light work under saddle. His stablemate, Bomarc, wasn't the only one glad to have him home. Not enough praise can be said for the clinic at Ohio State. It's a fabulous place with a deserving reputation of being one of the finest in the States. There were horses shipped in from as far away as Texas and even England. Dr. Johnson who is in charge of the Horse Dept., is one of the best leg men in the business.

The interest in Morgan horses in Ohio is spreading so rapidly that the task of reporting show results, sales and purchases became too great for two to keep track of, especially two in southern Ohio. So Mrs. Henry Nelsen of Akron very graciously consented to report on the activities of the Central Ohio Association. Many thanks to you Carol, your help is greatly appreciated.

Mass.'s loss, is Ohio's gain as the finely bred stallion, Edward Ash by Lippitt Ethan Ash out of Paragraph is now owned by Mr. Joseph Hoyt of Chillicothe, Ohio. Mr. Hoyt is a nephew of Mr. Nelson White, former owner of Edward. Edward is in training with Charlie Black at Cedarwood Stables in Chillicothe and made his first appearance in Ohio in a harness class at the Wellston Show placing second. Mr. Hoyt has become a member of the OMHA and plans to show Edward at halter and in harness, later under saddle. Good luck to you, Joe!

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Rutledge of DEVAN COMET (Captor—Ceres) owned by Crabapple Valley Farms.

Akron have purchased a weanling colt by the Crabapple Valley Farm stud, O. C. R. Tentative name for the colt—Devan Fiddlebow.

One of the cutest colts I have seen in a long time is Stormy Captor by O. C. R. out of Devan's Flake. He is owned by Elinor Amshey of Akron and being trained by Beverly Meyer. I saw the colt while attending a show at the State Fair Grounds in Columbus where he was stabled. Beverly took him out without lead rope or halter and the colt walked, trotted, backed, and parked on command in the midst of other horses. He's done himself proud in colt classes so far placing well every time entered except one against older colts of all breeds.

Don Shook's stallion Sea Breeze is making a strong bid for the Morgan high point trophy winning the class at Tallmadge and placing second at Richfield, his first two shows of the season.

The Ohio Morgan Horse Association extends a hearty welcome to Mr. Herman Speck who has just established a large Morgan breeding farm located east of Hinkley, midway between Cleveland and Akron. Mr. Speck has recently purchased 13 registered mares and two studs, and expects to add 15 to 18 more mares to his stable.

The 300 acre estate on which the stables are located is in a beautiful valley and grading has already been completed for the site on which will be built a barn, 165 feet long, with an indoor ring.

One entire end of the barn is to be lined with windows overlooking the spacious, sprawling ranch-type home of

New England News

Submitted by the Officers and Directors of the New England Morgan Horse Association

SUE ANNIS, New England Editor

Receiving, gathering, and writing the news for this monthly column is a full time occupation. The New England states cover an aggregate area of 67,384 square miles and undoubtedly these states contain the largest number of Morgan owners in America.

The Morgan enthusiasts present at the June meeting of the New England Association realized the magnitude of the task of gathering enough news each month to represent these owners satisfactorily and adequately. Consequently they appointed the officers and directors of the Association as a joint staff to procure news and to produce this column. These reporters are ideally situated to keep in contact with the owners in their areas and all are enthusiastic Morgan boosters. However, they are so busy that they shall be unable to do all the visiting they wish to do and it will earn their gratitude if you will drop them a line occasionally. They shall do their best to include your news in the report from your area. Let them know when you have Morgan visitors from great distances, new foals, sell or purchase a Morgan, or whenever you are doing something unusual with your Morgan. It will help them to write up your news if you include color, age, and the names of the sire and dam as well as the full registered name of your Morgan.

Although it may take some time for our group of novice reporters to become accustomed to recognizing, remembering, and writing the news of Morgans in New England, each of us will do our best to keep the readers posted on Morgan activities in this area. It will help us to do a good job if you will send your news to one of the officers or board members who lives in your state. They are listed below for your convenience.

Mr. Ralph Lasbury, Hartford, purchased 2 yearlings this spring and when you speak with him it is very apparent that he is pleased with his 5 lovely Morgans. The two newest are Windcrest Nancy C, a bay daughter of Pavlova by Upwey Ben Don and Windcrest Fireball who is a chestnut stallion out of Rena and also sired by Upwey Ben Don.

Miss Doris Rockwell, Hartford, purchased a yearling filly who was foaled in Vermont, but the dam was in foal when shipped from California. She is appropriately named Cal of Windcrest and she is by Harold Roberts out of Belle Gales.

Sir Patrick, the seven year old bay gelding owned by Dr. Edgar B. Butler of West Hartford now has a pretty chestnut yearling named Windcrest Windsor (Sealct of Windcrest — Windcrest Wonderbar) to share his stable. Although Dr. Butler thoroughly enjoys playing with this sweet natured colt, it is obvious that he can hardly wait for the little fellow to be old enough to use.

Coman Farms, Putnam, report the births of 4 colts and 1 filly, 3 of which were sired by S. J. Wallace (Townshend Manwallis — Townshend Fleet-foot). Two are bay colts out of Townshend Sweetheart and Spring Magic.

One is a chestnut colt out of April Magic. The other two foals are a chestnut stud colt by Merry Magic out of Merry Music and a bay filly out of Bunting and also sired by Merry Magic. Bunting is one of the last of the Allen King mares and she is now 22 or 23 years old.

MAINE

The Maine Morgan Club sponsored a pleasure ride which was held on June 8. Fourteen people attended and had such a wonderful time that they hope to repeat the ride next year. It looks as though Maine is well on its way to enjoying an annual pleasure ride, as well as the annual Maine All Morgan show which Maine Morgan owners are looking forward to attending again this month.

MASSACHUSETTS

Merrylegs Farm recently sold Whip-poorwill Trinket to Mr. William Cuthbert of Guilford, Conn. Trinket is a 5 year old chestnut mare by Squire Burger out of Locket (daughter of Hawk Jim) and when sold she had been bred to Townshend Manwallis who is a full brother to Townshend Cornita. The Cuthberts plan to have a family size breeding farm and raise a few foals each year.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Linton, Hillcrest Morgan Farm, North Carver were so pleased with their yearling stallion, Windcrest Dapper Don, that they purchased his dam. She is Piankeshaw Juzana and she is due to have another foal by Upwey Ben Don next April. The Lintons like her manners and action so much that they plan to have her trained so they can show her in Morgan classes.

Waseeka Farm, Ashland, has two more foals. Mannequin produced a chestnut filly which is sired by Panfield and Varga Girl had a bright chestnut colt sired by Upwey Ben Don. This makes a total of 5 colts with the 6th (Windcrest Donfield—Gertie G) due any moment.

Northwest News

By KATHARINE ESKIL

In Washington, Morgan owners have been running around in circles this summer, busily grooming and training for a show one weekend, chasing cows, horses or taking off for trail rides in the hills the next.

More and more of the important open shows in the state now offer Morgan classes, the number varying from one to four. The Appalachee Riders' three day show in Wenatchee had four classes; The W. S. C. Open Horse Show at Pullman and the Lake Washington Saddle Club Show at Bridle Trail State Park, also three day shows, had three shows. It is noteworthy that all three of these shows offered a Morgan driving class; that the Appalachee Show offered two, the Gay Nineties and a Combination class; and that the W. S. C. show offer for the first time, and in addition to the Morgan Gay Nineties Driving Class, a Fine Harness Class open to all breeds, and to be driven by an amateur. It all points to a growing interest in driving in this area.

Show results are as follows:

At the opening of the 1957 National Morgan Horse Show, Mr. John M. Seabrook, President of Seabrook Farms delivered the judges and officials to the stands in the above park coach.

It is a coach, painted in the traditional red and black, built by Shanks of London in 1875 and brought to the U. S. A. in a sailing vessel. This coach was drawn by 4 perfectly matched Morgans, bright bays with black manes and tails. They were trained by Mr. Seabrook and are regularly driven by him about his farm and to sporting events. Mr. Seabrook belongs to a very exclusive group of individuals who are interested in the art and challenge of driving four horses. He is the third American citizen to be elected member of the Coaching Club of Great Britain. His predecessors were Mr. C. W. Tiffany and Mr. Alfred Vanderbilt, Sr.

The Morgans pictured are: Leaders—REDSTONE 11005 (Sen. Graham and Bambino); CAPTAIN KEN 9497 (Pride of Kings and Illawana Bess). Wheelers: BOLINVAR 10723 (Nekomia's Archie and Lilly Belle); FORT KNOX 10385 (Flyhawk and Betty Barr).

Justin Morgan Assn.

By RHEDA KANE, Publicity Director

One of the penalties of being a Publicity Director is writing an article for the Morgan Horse Magazine while on vacation. Of course, it has its good points also as I started my month's vacation by attending the National Morgan Horse Show with my family and am now enjoying the peace and quiet of the north woods in the Upper Peninsular of Michigan at Muscolonge Lake.

Members of the Justin Morgan Horse Association have just about completed all details for the coming 5th Annual Michigan All-Morgan Horse Show which is being held at Woods and Water Farms on Sunday, Sept. 1st. At the rate the entries are arriving, we can expect almost double the amount of horses that were shown last year.

The stork arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Earehart on the 21st of July with a very precious two-legged bundle called, Daniel Shantz Earehart. Congratulations.

Michigan Morgans again gave a good account of themselves at the National Morgan Horse Show.

Springbrook Mansfield owned by Edgar Mansfield and shown by Milo Measel, placed 3rd in the Three-year-old Stallion Class.

In the Western Pleasure Class, Woods and Water Farms had three entries. The blue was won by John Geddes, second place went to Walthor and Locust Melody placed fourth.

Walthor won the Championship Pleasure Stake consisting of the top pleasure horses in English and Western tack making him Grand Champion Pleasure Horse of the Show. Walthor also took the blue in the Stock Horse Class.

Miller's Debutante brought home six ribbons. Placing second in Ladies Saddle; fourth in the Saddle Stake; fourth in Roadster in Harness; fourth in the Half Mile Race in Harness; fifth in the Pair Class with Springbrook Peggy and sixth in Mares, 15 Hands and Over.

Kane's Sonny Boy placed sixth in the Weanling Stallion Foal Class.

The Kane family was very proud of their little four-year-old daughter Renee having won a ribbon for sixth place in the Lead Line Class.

Wenloch's Fair Lady owned by E. B. Rickard of Wenloch Farm, Ann Arbor, Michigan also took home six ribbons. Placing second in Mares and Geldings in Harness; fourth in Mares, 15 Hands and Over; fourth in Ladies Harness; fourth in Combination; fifth in Ladies' Saddle; and sixth in Harness Stake.

Talley-Ho also of Wenloch Farm took a third in Geldings Four-year-old and Over and a sixth in Maiden Saddle. In the N. H. S. "Good Hands" Class Kaaren Rickard placed fifth.

Pennsylvania National Horse Show

October 19 to 26, 1957

The Pennsylvania National Horse Show is offering Morgan exhibitors the five following classes:

Wednesday: Morgans under 15 hands.

Thursday: Morgans 15 hands and over.

Friday evening: Junior Morgans.

Saturday morning: Pleasure Morgans.

Saturday afternoon: Morgan Stake.

It is very important for Morgan owners to exhibit at this show for several reasons. It is the only show on the Big Circuit which offers Morgan classes. This show has a very high percentage of 'horse minded' spectators, a ready-made, yet 'new,' market for selling Morgan manners and looks. The only way to continue to increase Morgan popularity is to continue to present Morgans before the public where they can "sell" themselves. The Penn. National offers Morgans one of the best opportunities to do so out of New England, at a show which attracts exhibitors and 'horsey' spectators from all over the country. The show itself has the prestige and beauty of the shows at Madison Square Garden and The Royal Winter Fair in Toronto, but it has better stabling facilities and an exercise paddock which New York lacks. If Morgans do not attend the show at Harrisburg this year, I'm very much afraid that Morgans will lose their only opportunity to exhibit themselves at a Show of this type.

Consequently, I should like to urge you to write Mr. G. A. Ebelhare, R. D. 1, Pottstown, Pa., for a Prize List. If you would consider going to Harrisburg with your Morgan this year, but would find it more convenient and/or less costly to share trucking expenses with other exhibitors, I shall be happy to act as a clearing house for the purpose of getting together exhibitors with no transportation and exhibitors with extra truck space. If you plan to show and have room for an extra horse or more, or if you would show if you could find transportation, please drop me a line as soon as possible and I shall do my best to get you matched up, somehow. Just write:

New England Association Meeting

By JANET DAKIN

Sue Annis riding tandem at Annual Field Day.

A crowd of nearly 300 gathered at Waseeka Farm in Ashland, Mass., on Sunday, June 30, for a box lunch, field day, and annual meeting of the New England Morgan Horse Association. Our hosts, Mrs. D. D. Power, Mr. and Mrs. E. Keene Annis, and Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Poitras, not only gave us a splendid day there, but also proved to be imperturbably calm and cordial in the face of the most unfortunate of weathers. If rain had been foreseen, we could have been easily accommodated in the indoor ring. However the sun shone from a brilliant sky, chairs and tables and lunches were spread in the open by the swimming pool. Then came a deluge of rain. We rushed for the house trailing soggy sandwiches, paper wrappings, and our own dripping selves. After the program, everything was bright and clear, so tables, chairs, dozens of glasses and bottles were set up outside, and again the sky emptied itself. This second wild scramble of the wet crowd indoors, still left our generous Waseeka friends smiling and unruffled.

After lunch, President Wallace L. Orcutt, Jr., called the meeting together and expressed his pleasure and satisfaction in working with the Association for the past two years. The customary business of an annual meeting culminated in the report of the nominating committee. There being no further nominations, the following were elected: President, Keynith Knapp; Vice-President, Mrs. Winthrop S. Dakin; Secretary, Miss Doris M. Rockwell; Treasurer, Nathaniel F. Bigelow, Jr.; Directors: Mrs. E. Keene Annis, Mrs. J. Cecil Ferguson, Miss Margaret Gardner, W. G. Glenney, Jr., and Miss Mabel Owen. Mr. Orcutt introduced our new President, Mr. Knapp, and the meeting was shortly after adjourned.

The rain had stopped and we went outdoors to the ringside for the program arranged by Waseeka Farm. The first event was a colt matching game. Four foals were lined up, and we were told the names of the three sires and four dams. The object was to give the sire and dam of each colt on a pedigree form provided. Eight people tied for correct answers, all of which were breeders or closely connected with breeders.

Mr. John Lydon then demonstrated the correct way to harness a show-horse, and gave tips on safe procedures with colts and green horses. Mrs. Power then exhibited the horse, driving it in a nice, even, balanced park trot. The same was done for a pair of harness horses.

Lastly Mr. Lydon and Mrs. Annis demonstrated two very sporting ways to ride, customs practiced by young bloods in Europe in earlier days, and now useful in getting more than one exercise at a time. Nice work, if you can do it! In the first, Mr. Lydon rode an "inverted unicorn," in which the rider drives before him a pair of horses, thus working three horses at once. The pair are in contact with each other and the rider only by a set of pair driving reins. Thereafter, Mrs. Annis rode tandem, driving a single horse in front of her mount. She put on a very nice, smooth performance, working out one of the traditional ring pattern for this style of riding. In both styles, the rider has a total of six reins to hold, quite a fistful. They showed us how they should be held for best control. Both tandem and inverted unicorn riding, can easily result in havoc, with less expert horsemen or greener horses. However, here it went very smoothly, horses and riders clearly knowing what they were doing.

After the program ended, the crowd dispersed to visit the two stables and to see other Waseeka horses led out in hand in the indoor ring. With the final deluge, previously mentioned, we went home with the memory of a happy and interesting day to last us a long time.

Members of the Association who plan to go on the Foliage Ride and Drive, on October 5 and 6, are advised to make lodging arrangements now for that crowded weekend in South Woodstock. The Kedron Vallen Inn and Hyacinth House, both in South Woodstock, are the most convenient to the stables. Old members who would like a copy of the Association By-Laws may write to the Secretary, Miss Doris M. Rockwell, 148 State St., Hartford 3, Conn.

Dear Sir:

I mailed my check to the Morgan Club, so no doubt you have it by now. Hope to soon hear from you since we have missed the magazine.

We do wish there was more news about our Morgans out West. We enjoy Pedler's stories very much.

It may interest you to know we own six registered Morgans and our breeding operation is headed by Benbeau 10063. We are very proud of him and he has proven himself a truly fine sire. We note interest in the wonderful Morgan is increasing; and each week brings visitors who are interested and want to see our Morgans. Then there is the visitor who knows little about the Morgan. After seeing them they are impressed and I love to explain the history of the wonderful Morgan.

Sincerely,

Lenore Luker

MRS. ROBERT BEHLING

July has been a month of sudden storms, tremendous heat and disgruntled farmers. Hay crops have been wonderful, the problem being to get it cut, turned and baled before it became wet again. Hope the weather man will allow us proper atmosphere for the oats, straw and next hay cuttings!

July 13 and 14 the annual Green Bay Horse Show was in full swing with one hundred and eleven horses competing for the awards. The weather was perfect, the grounds beautiful and the show extremely well organized. The results of the Morgan classes are as follows:

Model Morgan: Won by LURGAN, Hy-Lee Farms, Cambria, Wis.; 2nd, CROWN POINTS JEWEL, HyLee Farms; 3rd, DYBERRY ETHAN, C. F. Treflc, Silver Lake, Wis.; 4th, HYLEE'S AMBUSH, Cecil Francart, Green Bay, Wis.; 5th, MORO HILL'S MORINE, C. F. Treflc.

Morgan Western Pleasure: Won by CROWN POINTS JEWEL, HyLee Farms; 2nd, HYLEE'S AMBUSH, Cecil Francart; 3rd, DYBERRY ETHAN, C. F. Treflc.

Morgan Three-gaited: Won by LURGAN, HyLee Farms; 2nd, HYLEE'S AMBUSH, C. Francart.

Judged by Mr. Jay F. Brown, Jr., Mexico, Missouri.

The following weekend July 20 and 21, the state Morgan people trekked to Reedsburg, Wis. for another Wisconsin Horse Ass'n. point system show. The temperature blazed in the high eighties most of Saturday and Sunday forenoon, horses and humans shared a common misery, horses having a slight advantage of at least keeping the zillions of flies at bay, with the constant flicking of tails. Being an outdoor show, it was only fitting that to complete the program, around noon it began to rain. Now this did cool things off a bit, but made for a mighty slippery ring condition. The Morgan model class slid into the ring with but five entries, Lurgan, HyLee Farms little chestnut mare was shown to the top spot, with Chester Treflc's Dyberry Ethan in second position. Third place went to a very nice "picture" Morgan raised by C. J. O'Neill, and shown by his owner Edna Tisdale of Baraboo, Wis., this horse is a twelve year old bay stud, that we wish we'd see at more of the shows. We failed to get his name, and have kicked ourselves a dozen times. Moro Hills Morine, Margaret Treflc's young mare was fourth, with Crown Points Jewel of HyLee Farms claiming the pink ribbon.

Western Pleasure was shown in mud and constant rain, under the lights. Although the entries were light in numbers, this was a popular class with the spectators. The golden chestnut, five year old mare, Crown Points Jewel won the blue for HyLee Farms, with Dyberry Ethan in second slot, Edna Tisdale's good going bay stallion, was third.

Getting back to the Green Bay show although nearly every breed of horse was represented there, the Morgan had a shining moment that resulted in much admiration for him. Mrs. Cecil Francart, a tiny personable little lady was exercising her Morgan gelding Ambush before the half-filled grandstand, along with many others that were killing time before the classes were to start. Ambush was going at a full canter, when by some freak of fate a jumping barrier came out of nowhere, colliding with Mrs. Francart's foehead, knocking her unconscious. She lost one stirrup, and landed on the startled horse's neck. Ambush froze, and waited until someone came to help his mistress. According to all witnesses, with all the general confusion, and many grabbing hands, only a Morgan would have acted so sensibly!

New Morgan owners are Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Cleveland of Waverly, Iowa who purchased a bold yearling chestnut colt, HyLee's Top Brass (Max Hi Ho Kid — Dolly Mae). This youngster has a wonderful bouncing trot that will look extra good in fine harness. Brassy and his new friend Jo Lynn Cleveland should make a hard combination to beat wherever they go.

We made a quick trip to Detroit last week to see Gerald Taft. Had exactly two hours in the motor city, which limited us to the number of folks we'd have liked to seen. Gerald showed us a few of his good Springbrook Morgans, including a stylish three year old bay mare that will be the terror of the tanbark, fine harness wise. Quiz looked to be in top condition and just right proud of his offspring as well he should be.

Recent word from the Greenwalts down Springfield way reports the sale of their high going bay mare Flying Betty to the Rickards of Ann Arbor, Mich. Mr. Raz LaRose will train and manage the Rickard Morgans. Gloria Graham and Chiquita were also among those purchased from Highview Farm.

HyLee Farms have recently acquired the good producing mare, Knora Knox (Senator Graham—Velvet R. M.) and her weanling stud colt by Agazizz, from Bob Tynan of Stella, Nebraska. Knora stands a scant 14.2 and is a rich chocolate color, with white markings. She is bred to Agazizz to foal in 1958, have our fingers crossed for a filly

Sharing the ride to her new home in Wisconsin, was Crown Points Jewel, also purchased on the same trip by HyLee Farms. Jewel is a wonderfully well broke mare, with a rich golden color, accented by a light mane and tail.

The Wisconsin State Fair Horse Show held August 1, 2, 3 and 4, was bigger and better than ever this year. This show is classified by the American Horse Show Association as a Class B show for Morgans, offering three divisions. Morgan entries were sufficient, although many of the potential exhibitors were unable to return from the National in time to attend.

The Morgan three-gaited event was won by Lurgan, entry of HyLee Farms with owner Bob Behling up. Second ribbon went to Allen Daire, ridden and owned by Mr. Harold Meyers of Barrington, Ill.

A very fine group of Morgans entered the ring Friday night for the Model class. Judge Paul Raines of Memphis, Tenn, tied the Behling mare Lurgan for the blue, followed by Torchfire, handsome young stallion also owned by the HyLee Farms. A. Gordon Heitman of Chicago, Ill. showed his excellent mare Black Beauty Clifford to the third spot, with Trietta, Harold Meyers beautiful bay mare taking fourth ribbon. The impressive bay stallion Allen Daire was fifth, with the HyLee Farms Crown Points Jewel, sixth.

Crown Points Jewel, consistent performer, won the Western Pleasure class, with owner Bob Behling up, second place went to Payday, the handsome, mannerly stallion, shown most ably by his owner Elsie Heinz of Chicago. Gordon Heitman rode his Black Beauty Clifford (who certainly is a "black beauty") to third position with the bold and masculine Allen Daire, ridden by Mr. Meyers' son taking fourth.

Central States News

By EVE OAKLEY

The July 14 meeting of the Central States Morgan Horse Club was held in Libertyville, Illinois, at the home of Paul and Peg Beekman. There were 34 members and guests present. This was a Bar-B-Q with ribs a La Beekman and loads of food for everyone.

After the Chicago area being nearly submerged from the violent storm the Friday night preceding the meeting, we were a bit concerned as to how the meeting day would turn out, however, it was one of those rare beautiful days — blue skies and not too hot and the Beekman lawns were trimmed to perfection.

Even the Ring had dried enough to be used by Harold Meyers in his demonstration of putting a colt to harness. After a complete explanation and demonstration with Peg Beekman's new yearling filly — Caven-Glo Si Lovely, whose only concern was chewing up the straps — he harnessed his typey little bay stallion, Allen Daire, and put him through his paces in harness to demonstrate the finished product. This little stallion does a lot of good in promoting Morgans as pleasure horses in his area.

We had as guests at this meeting Mr. and Mrs. Rae Miller, of Downers Grove, Illinois, who later joined the Club. Also, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Ingold of North Chicago, and Mr. Ingold's mother and later, his brother and a friend dropped in. Mr. Ingold owns three Morgans, a 6 year old gelding, Illawanna Satan; two 6 year old mares, Illawanna Satin and Bay Belle. Mr. Ingold has also just purchased the weanling stallion, Tommy Hawk, by Hycrest Tommy out of Pixie Hawk, from Milo Measel, of Farmington, Mich. Jerry O'Grady's mother and younger sister were also guests at the meeting, and a great deal of credit goes to Mrs. O'Grady for her help with the preparations for the Bar-B-Q. Mrs. Kinsman also brought a friend, Mrs. Fraatz, of Maywood, Illinois.

I had a recent telephone call from Miss Elise Heinz, owner of the good stallion, Payday, and she tells me that Payday won the Elementary Dressage class at the Chicago F. E. I. Horse Show recently.

Several weeks ago, the K-Bar-B, home of the Beekmans, was visited by 35 boys from the St. Frances Camp for Boys in Libertyville, led by five priests. Peg Beekman showed them her two Morgan mares and gave a little history on the Morgan, general characteristics, gentleness, etc. The Camp has a new group of boys every two weeks and Peg has promised to entertain them with a short history of the Morgan horse every two weeks. This will certainly help arouse Morgan interest in our future generations of horse owners. The St. Francis Camp for Boys is conducted for Catholic boys within the age group of 8 to 13 years and all activities of this camp are supervised exclusively by members of the Franciscan Order.

I paid a short visit to the Schmitts in Mundelein, Illinois, after the Club meeting to see Darlene's 3 year old mare, Caven-Glo Sunshadow. Darlene has put a lot of work on this mare and has her entered in 3 4-H classes in the coming Lake County Fair. Good luck to you, Darlene.

New York State News

By RUTH ROGERS

The regular midsummer meeting of the New York State Morgan Club was held on the last day of June at the farm of Mr. and Mrs. Dean Caccamis at Lima, N. Y. Dean and Virginia's church group served a delicious ham dinner. Huge platters of food were passed, country style, and everyone ate too much, as usual. The Caccamis basement has recently been remodeled into a large play room. Here both dinner and meeting were held.

Afterwards we walked about the exceptionally beautiful Caccamis farm and saw the Holstein dairy herd, and their two Morgans, the handsome stud, Dude Sentney, grandson of Jubilee King; and his daughter, Lapatica. This filly's dam was the famous old breed mare, Hepatica, who died from a twisted intestine several years ago. Time was marching on, so the Dude was not put through his repertoire of tricks, which are many.

Up in Northern New York, the up-and-coming Canton Trail Pals Club showed Warren Patriquin's colored film, "The Morgan Horse in New England." Fifty members attended and enjoyed this movie. This is excellent advertising for the Morgans, which are beginning to infiltrate this section of the state.

The Canton Trail Pals also held their 4th annual show recently. The Morgan Babe's Beauty, owned by Ann Hazen of Nicholville, won first in Working Western, second in the Cutting Race, and third in Western Trail. The Morgan gelding, Captain Storm-a-Long, owned by Mildred Hilt Dalton of Gouverneur, was first in 3 gaited English, first in the Cutting Race, second in Western Trail, third in Egg Balancing and fourth in Working Western. All this, of course, was in open competition.

Our thanks, incidently, to Mrs. Willard Wells, of Pottsdam, and Mildred Dalton, of Gouverneur, who keep us informed of Morgan doings in their part of the state.

Recent visitors in the East were Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Goodwyn and daughter, Katie, of Arcadia, California.

The Goodwyns visited Morgan farms in New England — in fact, had hoped to see the National Show, but were misinformed as to the dates — and stopped at Sherimill Stable on their way home. Katie Goodwyn owns the black Morgan gelding, King's Gift.

Sales include the transfer of the 5 year old stallion, Ledgewood Rocket, from Gordon Allen of Cheektowaga, to Miss Becky Slosson of Williamsville. Rocky will be gelded and used for both show and pleasure. He is a full brother to Sealect of Windcrest, Ledgewood Comet, and Ledgewood Laurel, and is quite a stepper in his own right.

Arthur Fitzh, Murdock Road, Medina, has purchased the 6 year old mare, Oatka Wendy, from Miss Barbara Miller, also of Medina. Barbara found it impossible to keep both her job and her Morgan, so regretfully parted with her horse. She hopes to get back into the Morgan game soon.

LeRoy Taylor, of Medina, has had his 3 year old filly, Ledgewood Laurel, at Bob Brooks' Story Book Stable in Geneva for show training. Laurie makes her debut at Williamsport, and will campaign at Hamburg and Syracuse later.

The Taylors also have a new foal at their Royalcrest Farm, a bright bay stud colt from their broodmare, Blancarita, sired by Sherimill Sunrise of Sherimill Stable, Williamsville.

The Leon Loseys of Trumansburg also have a new stud colt by their well known pair, Illawanna Jerry and Marybelle.

Fritz Eisenhard of Warsaw at last has his daughter, Carol's, new mare home from New England. She is Nubin's Pride and has a lot of class. She has been bred to Bill Clarke's Nabob Morgan.

The regular Fall meeting of the Club will be held early in October, probably at the Apple Grove Inn, Medina, N. Y. which served us so royally once before. Time and place will be announced by mail, as usual.

May Ted Davis have some fine foals from the proven cross of Upwey Ben Don and Junior Miss. The gay young charmer, Bay State Becky by Meade out of Narcissa, who reigns alone in the Dakin stable, does not yet fill the same place in the home and heart of the Dakins.

stud colt sired by Cavendish and out of Spring Hope, who did so well for us in the 1956 Show season. Needless to say she will be back in the ring again for the late summer shows. This baby is a full brother to the handsome two year old stallion, Caven-Glo High Capri, owned by Miss Patricia Paver, of Hinsdale, Illinois and now answers to the name of Caven-Glo Hi Command. If he turns out anything like his big brother, he will be a dandy.

We, at Caven-Glo, had a pleasant surprise recently when we received an unexpected visit from Miss Maxine Merchant, of Sequin, Texas, who is trying to promote the Morgan in the state of Texas. She was accompanied by Mrs. Beverlee Stahl of Lowell, Indiana. Mrs. Pat Hayward and friend of Elgin, Illinois, were also visiting Caven-Glo that day.

From Dean Jackson in Harrison, Montana, comes word that two shows in Montana have Morgan classes; the annual Missoula Charity Horse Show, July 31—August 4, with Morgan Halter classes and a Morgan Western Pleasure Performance class; and the Madison County Horse Show in Twin Bridges, August 23, 24 and 25 with Halter classes for Morgans.

The Pleasant View Ranch of Harrison, Montana, furnishes Morgan colts every year for the contest put on at the little International Livestock Show held by the Montana State College at Bozeman, Montana. There are classes for four light horse breeds and the contestants are judged on the way they train, fit and show their colts. Dean reports that the winners in the Morgan class this year were Neva Larson of Lolo, Montana, first, with Queen Elita; Emily Pasha and Skip Gabrielson, both of Bozeman, second and third, with June Kate and Fleta; and Carol Miller of Woodland Hills, California, fourth, with Juleen.

Other notes from Montana are as follows: Rose Leggett of Whitehall is standing her stallion Adams Black Oak, at her ranch this summer. Adams Black Oak was bred by the late Thomas Adams of Huson, Montana, at one time one of the largest Morgan breeders in the West.

Mr. Ben Smalley of East Acton writes to report the birth of a liver chestnut filly on May 22. She has a star, connected strip, and snip, and two white stockings on her hind legs. The dam is Ruby Hawk and the sire is Ashland Donson and the Smalleys are very proud of this new addition.

RHODE ISLAND

Miss Pauline Cole of Cranston purchased the two year old bay gelding, Broadwall Bugler (Parade—Lyndrita) from Mr. and Mrs. J. Cecil Ferguson, Broadwall Farm, Greene.

Broadwall also sold an unnamed 1957 filly to Miss Ann Thompson of Melrose, Conn. The filly is by Parade out of Debutansque, which makes her a full sister to Broadwall Drum Major and it looks as if she will follow in his footsteps.

Mr. and Mrs. John Champlin of North Scituate have a fine stud colt out of Lasatina which was sired by Parade and Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Bigelow of Rutland, Mass, have a filly foal out of Broadwall Belle which was also sired by Parade. The Bigelows are very pleased with this typey filly which they have named Cinerama. She is the first Morgan foal to arrive at their place and they are as proud as punch. Cars, particularly those with children in them, stop to admire Cinerama whenever she is out in the pasture which adjoins the road.

Miss Polly Mather of Providence is the proud owner of a chestnut filly sired by Royalton White River, purchased from Dana W. Kelley's Morgan farm in Woodstock, Vermont.

VERMONT

The Robert Fowlers of Pownal purchased two new Morgans earlier this year. They are: Cossack, a red chestnut gelding sired by Red Pepper out of Bev. He is being trained for western classes. The mare is Molly Stark, a bay full sister to Cossack, who is being retained as a broodmare. She Lippitt Arrowhead who is a son of has been bred to their young stallion Bald Mt. Sammy Bob. They are expecting a foal any day now from another mare, Pine Ridge Edna, who is by Agazizz. The foal will be sired by Bald Mt. Ashglo, the stallion they lost last fall.

Mr. Keynith Knapp, Bald Mt. Farm, Arlington, reports the birth of a chestnut stud foal from Tinkerbelle by Easter Twilight. This little fellow has a star and disconnected strip.

Mr. Paquette of the Vermont Morgan Horse Farm, Weybridge, gave us a few more details of the 13 foals born there this year. It is interesting to note that 9 were fillies and 4 were colts. The sires are Tutor, Stanfield, Whitefield, and Upwey Ben Don, and the two individual foals he preferred are the filly by Stanfield out of Inez and the colt by Tutor out of Norma. The Horse Farm at Weybridge is rotating the mares and foals between the three pastures near the buildings so that the visitors may see them more easily. It must be a pretty sight to see 13 mares and foals in one pasture.

Mrs. Harriet J. Hilts of Woodstock, has established a Morgan breeding farm at "High Pastures." Last year she purchased from Dana W. Kelley of the Justine Morgan Farm, eight Royalton and Lippitt bred mares and a weanling stud colt. The foundation stock is mainly sired by Ethan Eldon. This year the following have been added to the farm: Royalton Nicholas, a son of Royalton Ashbrook Darling and Lippitt Royalton Nekomia, Royalton White River, a five year old stallion by Ethan Eldon and out of Lippitt Suzanne. A two year chestnut filly, Royalton Hepsibeth and her full sister, two months old, also chestnut, Royalton Patience, both sired by Ethan Eldon and out of Lippitt Royalton Phoebe, a daughter of Lippitt Ethan Ash and Lippitt Sally Moro. Mrs. Hilts and her daughters, Lee and Harriet have taken part in several of the Green Mountain Horse Association pleasure rides and shows.

Recent foals owned by Mrs. Hilts include two sons of Ethan Eldon, one by Lippitt Ramona and one by Justine Morgan. A foal that is creating quite a sensation in Woodstock, was recently born to Peggy, a small donkey. This small black youngster has ears about a foot long, a white nose, plenty of pep and quite a sight to see.

Foals born at the Justine Morgan Farm in Woodstock, Vt., include a chestnut colt to Royalton Justine Darling, a lovely chestnut filly, Royalton Debbie Darling to Lippitt Darling and a chestnut filly, Royalton Patience to Lippitt Royalton Phoebe. All sired by the farm's senior stallion, Ethan Eldon.

This is the end of the news we were able to gather this month. We hope to be better organized next month when we do not have the National Show and the deadline for publication coming at the same time. Please do not forget to send your news to us.

the Specks, and large private lake. This section of the barn will house the tack room and lounge.

Mr. Speck who operates the Tas-Tee Catering Service in Cleveland, has long been interested in Morgans. A few years ago he tried in vain to find a pair of matched Morgans to be used for advertising purposes in connection with his business.

He has been using a pair of matched buckskins, which have become familiar sights on the Streets of Cleveland, advertising his catering firm.

This spring he started scouting for Morgans with which to stock his breeding farm, and so far has acquired the following mares:

Bonny Ellen, out of Ruby Ellen by Bonfire, purchased from Davis Stutzman of Arthur, Ill.

Maytime Melody, out of Polly Forrest by Congo, from Mrs. Ed Ryan of Delevan, Ill.

Illowanna Bess, out of Gosette, by Ken Carmen, from Norman Campbell of Coulterville, Ill.

Triwana, out of Illawana Bess, by Triton, from Norman O. Campbell of Baldwin, Ill.

Tribella, out of Tifona by Congo, from Mrs. Ed Ryan.

Lady L. U. (Lady Lou), out of Aster by Fillmore, from Arthur, Ill.

Polly Forrest, out of Katette by Forrest Whirlwind, from George Brunk of Springfield, Ill.

Gayla, out of Highand Firefly by Duke B E, from Helen B. Greenwalt of Pawnee, Ill.

Dot Jekyll, out of Dorothy D H of Jekyll, from Stuart G. Hazard of Topeka, Kansas.

Great Hawk, out of Dimity by Hawk Jim, from Judy Wilhelm, in Clinton, Ohio.

Lisa Lynne, out of Ailsa by Flying Jubilee, from Mr. and Mrs. Robert Watkins of Manito, Ill.

Betty J, out of Becky Stark, by Jekyll from Stuart G. Hazard of Topeka, Kansas.

Newly-purchased studs are OCR, from the Crabapple Farm of Merle Evans, and Great Hawk. Great Hawk is the Morgan which Evans sent to Montana several years ago for range breeding, and was caught in the blizzard which caused the deaths of many of the fine horses in that area. Great Hawk, however survived the ordeal and is termed by his new owner "in great shape."

Among the mares at the Speck Breeding Farm, 15-year old Polly Forrest has the enviable record of having produced eight fine colts. Her younger has been nominated for this year's Illinois Futurity. Among her produce, four have gone to grand champions and three have been reserve champions.

So far the mares at the Speck Farm have produced three fillies and one stud colt, with four others due to foal shortly.

Welcome to Herman Speck who is joining the ranks of Ohio's fast-growing list of Morgan owners! He not only became a member, but also secured two other new members, his trainer, Walter Harris, of Hilo Farm, North Olmstead, Ohio and Charles Mille, farm manager for Speck who lives on the Speck estate, Route 303, Hinkley, Ohio.

Following are the results of Morgan classes:

Ashland Paint & Plain, May 4 & 5

In the Colt Class 3 years and under, shown in hand, out of a class of nine good 2 and 3 year olds, four Morgans took four of the five places.

1st, DEVAN PAMBROOKE, Don Shook; 2nd, ARABIAN; 3rd, DEVAN DALE, Doris Nelsen, shown by Ed Granger; 4th, STORMY CAPTOR, Elinor Amshey; 5th, DEVAN CAVALIER, A. H. Acken.

This was an excellent colt class and the Morgan owners should be very proud.

In the large Tallmadge owned horse horse class, Devan Wales, owned by Gene Angel and ridden by E. W. Granger, placed a good fourth.

Secretary's Report

which, covering a period of about eight years, brings the publication of registrations and transfers up to about the end of 1954. This volume is nearly twice the size of Volume VI covering the previous eight years, and is an indication of the progress of the breed in recent years.

The showing of Morgans, both in open shows and in strictly breed shows gained materially during the year. There was a constantly increasing number of shows offering Morgan classes. The local organizations are being very active in promoting a wider exhibition of Morgans in their areas and in some sections they have even attempted all breed shows. For instance, in the state of Washington where distances are great and numbers widely scattered two strictly breed shows have been held with very encouraging support.

The National Morgan Horse Show, of course, is the great Morgan show of the country. As a matter of fact, it is one of the outstanding all breed shows offered in this country. It is getting to be, perhaps, too large for convenient management, but considering our breed situation even ten years ago, it is amazing that over 270 of the outstanding Morgans in the Eastern third of the country could be assembled for such a Show. It is having and will continue to have in the future, a marked influence toward developing greater uniformity of type throughout the breed.

The motion pictures taken at these shows are widely distributed throughout the country, and the Morgan breeders and owners in other sections are avid to see these pictures in order to compare their own animals and those in their neighborhoods with what we consider to be the leading examples in the breed.

The Morgan Horse Magazine has become a valuable publicity medium for the breed and while we need a much greater subscription list, it is giving, due to its distribution, a better understanding of what the Morgan horse can and is doing.

publishing Volume VII amounted to over $9,000. Selling this volume at $20 per copy would require the sale of between 450 and 500 copies. To date we have sold 121. No doubt there are some of you that have delayed placing your order for this volume. We hope that everyone who can use it, will subscribe as this has the effect of decreasing the money we have tied up in it.

The profit received from the National Morgan Horse Show has become an important part of our income and it may be hoped that it will gradually increase in the future, although it cannot be expected to gain vastly under its present organization as a strictly breed show and held for convenience in this area which is not notably a horsey section so far as the general public is concerned.

The Morgan Horse Magazine has made notable strides in the last few years towards becoming at least self-supporting, and it is to be hoped that this situation can be continued and gradually improve.

The problem of the Directors in establishing a breed office and engaging the necessary personnel will tax our means necessarily. Our present net income is not anywhere near sufficient to cover the necessary annual budget for that purpose but with what reserve we have, it should be possible to inaugurate this step in the expectation that the normal income could be increased from what it is now and that new sources of income can be developed.

Annual Report

On Friday morning, a breakfast meeting of the Directors of the Club was held at which eleven were present, including Mr. Brunk from Illinois, Mrs. Childs from Pennsylvania, Mr. Davis and Mr. Krantz from Vermont, Mrs. Ela and Mr. Orcutt from Massachusetts, Mr. Ferguson from Rhode Island, Mr. Sahlstrom from Minnesota, Mr. Taft from Michigan and Messrs. Hills and Stone from New York. After reviewing the status of various problems on which the Directors have been working for many months, it was voted to have a meeting in New York on November 4 at which time it is hoped we will be nearer to a solution of some of these problems.

Spring we can talk LIFE magazine into doing a spread on our 1958 National Morgan Show.

Listed below are the names and addresses of the organizations and individuals who assisted our publicity efforts this year. Getting their future cooperation depends on all of us.

Our 1957 show was a wonderful experience for our family despite the rainy and overcast sessions. And the opportunity of meeting scores of our Morgan friends is a yearly event we all look forward to. Good luck to all of you this coming year and let's all get in there and pitch in the months ahead to get the Morgan breed the publicity it so richly deserves.

the show. So, Earl Krantz' horses have been regularly honored. It is high time that he should share in that acclaim.

When the Morgan Horse Farm band was dispersed in 1950, the fast talking of Professors Cowan and Hale convinced Earl Krantz that Damsel should come to Massachusetts, and that we should surely do well by her. It seemed at first that she did not appreciate the move. When we longed for a filly foal, she gave us a stud. When we sent her shopping for a stud foal, she brought home a filly. But, when you look at that group of descendants, she has done far better by us than we can ever do by her.

To Damsel then, a model, a mover, and a matron, this foral tribute, so richly deserved, is but a small attempt on our part to even the score.

National Show

The get of Ulendon continue to win and one of this year's big winners was Orcland Gayman. He is owned by the Orcland Farms. Reserve went to the good son of Upwey Ben Don, Windcrest Sensation, owned by Mr. and Mrs. F. O. Davis.

Amy Allen, by Havolyn Dancer out of Orcutt Fannie Allen and owned by Peter Nelson, led a comely group of 2 year old mares and went on to take the Junior Championship. She also placed 2nd in Harness Pair Class. Reserve went to Waseeka's Thisizit.

Gay Dancer, 4 year old stallion by Havolyn Dancer out of Deerfield Leading Lady won the Junior Saddle Championship for owner Peter Nelson. The two Nelson entries made an exceptional record against the larger list of some of the bigger stables.

Waseeka's Nocturne gives promise of being the horse from Waseeka to watch in the future. He captured the Junior Harness Horse trophy with Gay Dancer, Reserve.

Just-A-Sweetheart owned by Mrs. John Mercer won two blues in the Pleasure Classes: Road Hack and Trail Horse English. This little mare is a full sister to the Waseeka Champions, Windcrest Donfield and Windcrest Sentimental Lady.

The Ferguson entries were again led by their grand stallion Parade, who won the big Combination Class and won the Reserve Champion Saddle ribbon with owner J. Cecil Ferguson up. Their flashy two year old stallion Broadwall Drum Major easily captured the 2 year old Stallion Model, as well as the 2 year old Stallion Driving Class. Here is a horse we will see more of.

Mr. and Mrs. Ferguson were also pleased to see Dorothy Chester take first with Boadwall Bonny Bell in the Children's Harness Horse Class.

The Charles L. Adams won two blues with Glendalect: Broodmares with 1957 Foals and Broodmares with two of Produce. Leadalect also won the blue for them in the yearling mare class. Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Voorhis also captured two blues with their typey four year old mare Madalin who is by Orcland Leader and out of Gladly.

The C. W. Flemings were rightfully proud of two entries: Gay Blade who won the blue in the Maiden Saddle Class and placed well in his other classes. It will be recalled he also won as a yearling in '54. Captain Max also took the blue in the yearling class, which was a repeat of '56 when he also won the Weanling Class.

We especially enjoyed seeing the horses from the Mid-west do so well with the wins of the previously mentioned Walter and Rheda Kane of Michigan; also George Gobel who took the blue in the 1 Mile Race in Harness, and Roadster in Harness for owners Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Barton of Illinois; and of course there was the Brown Falcon who won the 3 year old under Saddle for the Stuart G. Hazards of Topeka, Kansas. This is truly becoming a National Show in fact as well as in name.

To mention all of the outstanding horses and their wins is impossible. It was a good show, the best we have attended. The classes were all full to overflowing. The management and committees are to be complimented, but before you go on and read the Show summary we must mention Upwey Ben Don who won his 5th consecutive "Get of Sire" Class. His get were outstanding and bid fare to continue their winning ways long after this show is forgotten.
