

AMHA CLUB OF THE YEAR AWARD

All entries must be submitted in notebook form. Entries are judged prior to the AMHA Annual Convention and are awarded cash prizes for first, second, and third place finishes. Prize amounts are $600, $400, and $300, respectively.

To nominate a club:

- 1) Provide a written statement listing club accomplishments and activities in the last year.
- 2) Document club accomplishments in an easily viewed notebook format with a section on each of the judged categories. We recommend that additional materials be included with the submission to emphasize the judged categories.
- 3) Display photographs documenting Club activities.
- 4) Include program information and materials such as scholarships, contests, award program information, and newspaper articles documenting club activities.

Notebooks are judged in eight different categories:

Chapter 1: Presentation of notebook, 15%

Chapter 2: Morgan and non-Morgan activities, 15%

Chapter 3: Breed promotion and civic activities, 15%

Chapter 4: Non-horse show activities, i.e. trail rides, 15%

Chapter 5: Fund raising, 15%

Chapter 6: Number of current and new members, 10%

Chapter 7: Percentage of AMHA membership in club, 10%

Chapter 8: Special promotional projects, 5%

CLUB NOTEBOOKS ARE DUE TO THE AMHA OFFICE BY JANUARY 15. Please be sure to insure your package as AMHA cannot be responsible for lost or damaged submissions.

AMHA PROMOTER AWARD

The Promoter Award recognizes club members who are diligent supporters of the Morgan breed, working hard to bring the Morgan into public arenas. Recipients of the Promoter Award actively promote the Morgan at fairs, parades, open barns, equine expos, and through many other activities. Selected members will be awarded a collectible "Morgan Promoter" pin as well as a certificate marking their accomplishment. All affiliated clubs and national service organizations are allowed to select up to three recipients per year.

NOMINATION REQUIREMENTS

- 1) Designees must be current AMHA members.
- 2) Selections must be received by January 15 of each year.
- 3) Recipients of the Promoter Award may receive the award only once in their lifetime.
- 4) A photo and short biography (400 words or less) must be included for each nominee.

AMHA MASTER'S CERTIFICATE

AMHA Master's Certificates recognize our Morgan owners, 60 years or older, who have taken an active role in enjoying the Morgan breed. Nominees must be nominated by an AMHA Recognized Club because the Master's Certificate awards are presented at the AMHA Annual Convention. Nominations will not be accepted unless accompanied by this form, a photo, and a brief biography (400 words or less) describing the nominee's involvement with Morgans. It must be signed by the current club president or secretary. Failure to provide these materials will result in the nomination(s) being returned.

NOMINATION REQUIREMENTS

- 1) Nominees must be at least 60 years old and have a current AMHA membership.
- 2) Nominees must actively pursue endeavors with a registered Morgan(s). Activities may range from occasional pleasure rides and drives to breeding, showing, and promoting the Morgan horse.
- 3) Each recognized club may nominate two members annually. Nominations must be signed by the current president or secretary.
- 4) Nomination deadline is January 15 of each year.
- 5) Master's Certificates are awarded at the AMHA Annual Convention. Please note at the bottom of the nomination if the person will be attending the convention to receive his/her award. Representatives of the nominee may also accept the certificate on the recipient's behalf.

AMHA NEWSLETTER CONTEST

Judging Guidelines

The criteria used for selecting the best annual AMHA club newsletters may also serve as a useful evaluation checklist. Please see the next page for judging guidelines. Certificates are presented for Graphic Design, Educational Content, Editorial Content, Club Activity Coverage, and General Excellence. Clubs may enter the contest by mailing submissions to the AMHA office no later than January 15. The contest is open to newsletters produced by AMHA Recognized Clubs, as listed in the AMHA Network. Winners are announced at the AMHA Annual Convention.

Graphic Design & Quality

Items evaluated in this category include general appearance, use of graphic aids, photos, layout, neatness, and print quality. Quality, accuracy of spelling, grammar, use of names and dates, identification of photos and bylines also are judged.

Educational Content

Newsletters should provide member breed information. This includes use of AMHA press releases, article reprints, and special stories by club members, in addition to information about the local horse industry.

Editorial Content

Newsletters should promote member awareness. Letters to the editor, editorials, a column introducing new members, and opinion pieces all are considered.

Club Activity Coverage

Recent meetings, shows, activities, events, achievements, and member contributions should all be recorded. Membership rates, contact names and addresses of club officers, and activity directors should also be included.

General Excellence

A newsletter should combine all the above divisions in a well-balanced presentation.

PLEASE DETACH AND AFFIX TO THE COVER OF THE SUBMITTED ISSUE.
