A Morgan Family

The mare is called a dam and she is the mother of the foal (colt is a boy and a filly is a girl).

The stallion is called the sire when he is the father of the foal.

The first Morgan horse was a bay colt known as "Figure." He was born in Springfield, Massachusetts, in 1789, the same year George Washington became the first President of the United States. His sire was the bay Thoroughbred stallion, True Britton (Lloyd's Traveler x Betty Leeds) and his dam was known as the Wildair Mare (Diamond x Sportsman Mare).
