General Alarm Fire Sweeps Eusey Press

A general alarm fire spread from the Star Manufacturing Company to the Eusey Press in early December to destroy all stock and damage considerable equipment.

Among "work-in-process" which was destroyed was the December issue of the Morgan Horse Magazine which was ready for mailing and required a complete reprinting.

Fortunately all plates were saved, along with records and the mailing list. The cooperation of local printers and suppliers made possible the reprinting of this issue which, unfortunately is arriving in your hands at the close of the holiday season instead of at the beginning as planned.

Most of the equipment is now back in operation and the January-February number will be mailed on schedule.

March will be the stallion issue. Plan now to list your stallion in this important number. 25,000 readers will read with interest of the outstanding Morgan stallions thruout the country. Give your stallion the recognition he deserves.

Your Morgan Stallion Directory

Join in the movement for the development of the Morgan Horse with your advertisement about your stallion, your breeding program and the horses you have for sale. You will get an opportunity to meet our subscribers from coast to coast.

Largest Issue of the Year

Since this issue was first inaugurated, the ANNUAL STALLION ISSUE has been our largest issue, devoted to helping horsemen tell about their stallions, helping to build a stronger market for registered breeding stock and helping to increase the overall interest in the use of horses for ranch, show, pleasure and breeding.

Build Your Stallion's Popularity

Your pictures and advertising in this issue are the best way to establish and develop the popularity of your stallion among horsemen who are interested in breeding to the best and buying the finest Morgan stock. Let horsemen and buyers of horses know the winnings of your stallion, his successful colts: show how attractive he is with a picture and tell of his family. Your advertising will pay big dividends.

PARADE 10138 AND HIS SON BROADWALL DRUM MAJOR 11457

Two outstanding stallions bred and raised at Broadwall Farm.

Parade's sons and daughters are making Morgan History from Coast to Coast.

Enjoy your Morgans as we do.

BROADWALL FARM

Greene, Rhode Island

We are especially pleased to feature Broadwall Rhythm and Mrs. Winthrop S. Dakin for this holiday issue. Truly this beautiful scene is proof that all of the snow did not fall in "the good old days," and that 20th century living can also be enjoyable. Good sleighing for many years to come, Mrs. Dakin.

Letters to the Editors

Dear Sir:

Received a letter from Ern Pedler a couple of days ago and he tells me my friend John Loewen is going down Nov. 1st to pick up a stud colt. John and I travelled 5300 miles to buy our first Morgans four years ago and for saddle horses we got two fine animals. However, they were not the animals you would pick to carry on the glory of Justin Morgan and should have been sold as geldings. When we finally found this out we decided to buy again and I got Magic from Ern Pedler last fall. From this picture you can see he is all Morgan and I am very pleased with both his conformation and size. He was fourteen hands at 16 months. I think I'll get my 15.1 and 1100 lbs., when he is through growing. I bought him before he was born and I believe John did too. It is sure nice to be able to find someone who will really try to help you, and not just sell you a horse.

When I went to pick up my colt last fall Ern took me to see four of "Fly's" colts and standing together I don't think you could have told them apart.

Starfire is dressed up for Mayday in his picture but he is a real mountain working horse and nothing is too tough for him to try. Rocks, logs and creeks are all in a days work to him. He'll walk up to a three foot log and jump it

A Christmas Story . . .

By NELL FLETCHER

THE BLACK COLT

It was late dusk when Jim Banning drove the wagon into the yard of his small claim. He unhitched the two horses and led them into the barn. After blanketing them and tossing down an extra fork of bedding straw he headed for the house. He started up to the front door, then stopped. Standing in front of him was a little man, about four feet tall, dressed in red with a long snow-white beard.

Hello . . . huh!" Jim gasped. What had looked, in the growing dark, like a small man was actually a snowman.

"Hi Daddy! Don't you like my Santa Claus?" A little blonde girl about six, ran out of the house and threw her arms about Jim's neck.

"He's mighty pretty, honey. What did you make him for?"

"Well, Mama said I couldn't go into town and see Santa. So I made my own and told him what I wanted for Christmas."

"Did he say he'd give you what you wanted? Jim asked.

"Uh-huh! He said he'd make sure I got a pretty little black colt."

"Oh!" Jim suddenly decided to change the subject. "How did you get that red coat on the snowman?"

"Mama had some red dye that I mixed up and poured over him. It's so cold that it didn't run down or anything." Then, as an after-thought, "Mama gave me the dye."

Jim nodded. "Come on, Kathy. Let's go in and eat. It's getting a lot colder out."

That night, after Jim had finished milking their one, rather ancient cow, he entered the house. "Kathy's asleep, isn't she, Elena?" he asked his wife.

"Yes, Jim. She worked hard on her Santa today. She was pretty tired."

"Christmas . . . three days off! And we haven't got a thing for Kathy. She has her heart set on a colt."

"I know, Jim. I do wish we could afford to buy her one. But you're wrong about our not having anything for her. Mrs. Saunders, the minister's wife, gave me a doll for her . . . and I managed to find some scraps and make it some new clothes. And I thought you could bring in a small tree tomorrow night."

"I reckon I can. But, Elena, you know Kathy doesn't want a doll. She wants a colt."

"Even the mustang colts sell for $10 a head. We couldn't afford to pay that much."

Jim spoke bitterly. "I wish I'd never come to this God-forsaken country. If we were still in the city I might be able to give my family the things they need. You haven't had a new dress in years."

"The old ones are still good, Jim. But maybe if we skimped . . ."

"No! It's impossible. Kathy can live without a colt."

"I realize that, Jim. But how can we get her to understand?"

"She'll have to. Even the Morgans were more than we could afford . . . but we had to have some way to get to town."

"Let's go to bed, Jim. We're both tired. And we can't get Kathy a colt by talking about it."

"Reckon you're right, honey. I've got a lot of work to do in the morning. A night's rest will do me good."

For the following three days Kathy was never quiet. All she talked about was the black colt Santa was bringing her. Jim and Elena tried to explain, but Kathy couldn't or perhaps wouldn't understand. Finally Christmas eve came and with it bad weather.

Kathy was in bed asleep. Jim was looking out the window at the gathering clouds. "Looks like we're in for another storm, Elena. I'm not going to get the cattle tonight, though."

"Jim, what are we going to do about Kathy? She still thinks she's going to get the black colt."

"I thought that was settled. She's got to know that Santa can't possibly bring her a colt. She'll have to be satisfied with the doll and those clothes you made it. There's other kids in this country that won't even have that much."

"But I'm worried. She insists that snowman promised her a colt. She won't try to see."

Jim was still at the window. He turned to his wife.

"It's beginning to snow. Maybe I should go after the cattle. This storm might get worse."

"No, Jim! You can go first thing tomorrow. What if it is Christmas?"

Kathy was up at six the next morning, and out looking for her colt. She had not even noticed the packages under the little tree in the living room. After searching all around the house, she ran up to Jim, who was saddling one of the team.

"Daddy, Daddy, Santa hasn't brought my colt yet."

"Kathy, I tried to tell you that Santa isn't bringing you a colt. Look, Santa knows you can't afford to give him the care he'll need so he's waiting until you can."

"Santa is too going to bring me a colt, Daddy. He told me so. Maybe, maybe he just got lost in the snow."

"Kathy, I've got to get the cattle. I can't stand here and talk about this foolishness. Now, you go in to your mother. I think Santa has already come."

"No, Daddy, you watch for him while you're looking for the cattle," Kathy called, backing up towards the house.

"But I told . . ." Oh, what's the use, Jim thought, as he mounted the Morgan gelding. "Doggone, I wish this snow would let up. When it snows up here, it really snows."

"Hey!" Jim's pony stumbled over a hidden root. "Take it easy, Pat, we've got a long way to go."

But Kathy's disappointment rode with him.

"I wish Kathy would forget about that colt." Time and again as he searched for the cattle, Jim returned to his problem. "There's just no way to get her one. A fine Christmas this is!"

Jim found the going difficult because of the deep drifts.

"This snow is beginning to fall faster," he spoke to his mount. "You're lucky, with a barn to go back to. It's sure tough on those mustang herds." And they're thick around here, too thick to survive a hard winter, he went on to himself.

The thought was almost a relief to the harassed rider; it took his mind away from his own troubles. Cattle and horses . . . no Christmas for them either . . . not in this country.

Jim kept at his job. Finally he drew rein and turned.

"Thank heaven, this is the last of the dogies." He had just driven a yearling heifer out of the brush. "I never knew ten head of yearling stock could hide out in so many places. Let's go home, Pat."

It was over an hour later that Jim approached the claim. He dreaded to face Kathy again. She'd surely know the truth now. He moved on, bucking the drifts, trying to find some excuse that would satisfy his daughter and ease his own mind. And then he was home.

Jim saw Kathy standing in the yard, waiting for him. Waiting to see if I caught up with Santa, I suppose, Jim thought. Won't that kid give up?

"Daddy, Daddy, you did see Santa, you did!"

"I'm afraid not." Jim stopped short on hearing a whinny behind him. He spun in the saddle. There, nearly under Pat's tail, was a knock-kneed black colt with a white star!

"Isn't he beautiful, Daddy? I told you Santa would bring him. He just got lost last night. Where did you meet Santa, Daddy?"

Jim was nearly speechless.

"I . . . I don't know, honey. He must have left the colt with Pat while I was pulling one of the yearling out of a drift."

"Isn't he beautiful, Daddy? I'm going to call him Snowstorm. Don't you think that's a good name?"

"For a black colt?" Jim laughed. "It sure is . . . real good. Now you take that colt into the barn and bed him down. I'll go tell your mother what you're doing."

Elena looked up as Jim entered the kitchen. She smiled at her husband; then, before he could shut the door, she was at his side gazing past him.

"Jim, where's Kathy? She went out to meet you."

"Oh, she's in the barn, Elena, bedding down her new black colt."

"New black colt! Jim, how . . . where . . . I don't understand." Elena could scarcely speak.

"I don't really know myself, Elena. He must be one of the mustang colts. These hills are full of them. He followed Pat home."

"Oh Jim, that's . . . that's . . ."

"Wonderful? Yes, she thinks Santa brought him, and . . . well, we might as well let her go on believing it. In fact, I'm not too sure myself. Maybe . . . maybe he did."

By DOROTHY LOCKARD

Among other things, we need a new sofa, and we had made plans in that direction. But we bought a new mare, the grand old mare, Gwen S. Driving home, Pa and I carefully explained to each other that the S meant sofa.

I can hardly wait until our non-horsey friends ask if we've got our new sofa yet. I can just hear them when I reply, "Yes, it's a chestnut color with four white stockings and a blaze." Thank God there are two horse nuts in this family. Otherwise, there would be heck to pay, huh?

We had a grand visit with the Penrods of Indiana, Pa., when we were buying the mare. We were discussing (and cussing) how bad the flies had been this summer. I told Penny I rubbed baby oil around the horses' eyes and it helped. Penny said, "You don't hate flies as bad as I do then. I rubbed castor oil around our horses' eyes and the flies physicked themselves to death. A fitting death, I figured."

Our horsey friends are now dropping by to see the twenty-four year old mare we were foolish enough to buy. They take one look and exclaim, "She doesn't show her age at all. She looks like a young mare!" Yep, Gwen S is built like a young mare and feels like a young mare. We get a big kick out of telling her age. The rest of you can promote Morgans your way. I'll emphasize the longevity angle. If any of you have, or know of, old Morgans still leading a useful life, write to me about them, and I'll see if we can't use it some way for promotional material.

Have you got your copy of Jeanne Mellin's book, The Morgan Horse, yet? Better order it. The average book of this type is pretty dry reading. This isn't. You will enjoy this book. It will take you back to the days of Justin Morgan, and you will feel like you are part of the crowd betting on the horses. Some of the crowd are drinking, and they get a little rowdy and wind up "in the pokey". One old boy tried to pull a fast one and he had to "ske-daddle" out of town quick. Human nature and horse nature are presented with humor. You'll love the old tales of the Morgan horse's beginning. The old pictures, and the new ones by Jeanne Mellin, make it a book you will treasure always.

I sent a buck to the Morgan Horse Club office for the linen towel they had advertised. It was even nicer than I expected. I hope there are enough towels left to satisfy the demand.

The Morgan reining pattern is one more step in the right direction for promoting our breed. I sure hope the pattern decided upon will fully exhibit the mental and physical abilities of Morgan horses. Thanks, all you western folks for working on this.

Our newlyweds have moved to the nicest small town. They live in a one hundred year old brick building. Their front door sits on the sidewalk, but the back door seems to sit in the country. The bank, post office, grocery and hardware stores are within their block. Our girl says, "The grocery stores are fabulous. Things are up on high shelves you can't reach. The clerks get the groceries for you. They even cut their own meat, right in front of you!"

This town is in Amish Dutch country, and hitching posts are much in evidence on the main street. An Amish lady peddles eggs and butter, and paun-haus, and shmeir-case, door to door. I probably didn't spell that last product properly, but I was pretty grown up before I learned it was also called cottage cheese. When I see scrapple in stores today, I mutter, "Ah, paun-haus," and my Western raised husband gives me a puzzled look.

This little town has the most delightful newspaper. It contains news, important news, of your neighbors. Like, who is husking corn and who is late sowing his oats, and whose barn is going up and there will be a "frolic" there next Tuesday. Who visits whom and when, and who baby-sat the children left at home. And, "The Robert Bylers had a new baby born Monday night or Tuesday morning, and it was a boy. That makes four boys and four girls for the Bylers, but the last three had been girls." (Now, doesn't that tell a story?)

The editor has a front page column called 'The Whatcha m' Column'.

Some of you folks have probably read about the Internal Revenue Service selling an Amish farmer's work team because he refused to pay social security taxes. The Amish don't believe in any form of insurance. It's against their religion. They take care of their own. A lot of people all over the U. S. are up in arms about the sale of these horses. It has become a national issue.

We know most of the cattle and horse dealers around here. The Internal Revenue boys called a lot of them, and no one would haul those horses away from that farm. They finally hired Tony, an out of state dealer and did not tell him the circumstances. They just hired him to pick up a couple of horses which is all a part of the day's work for Tony. Tony got the horses but he felt very bad when he found out what the score was later.

Sitting in the Kids' apartment you can hear the clip-clopping of horses going by. It is such a reassuring sound in this jet age. We look out the window and watch the black box-like buggies go by. Most of the horses are not fat and slick like horses in show bloom. They are in good working shape, though.

Milford Fox of Middlefield, Ohio, lives in Amish country too. Milford sold a Morgan to a Dutch farmer a long time ago. That Morgan's descendants are better looking, and in better flesh than the average Dutchman's horse.

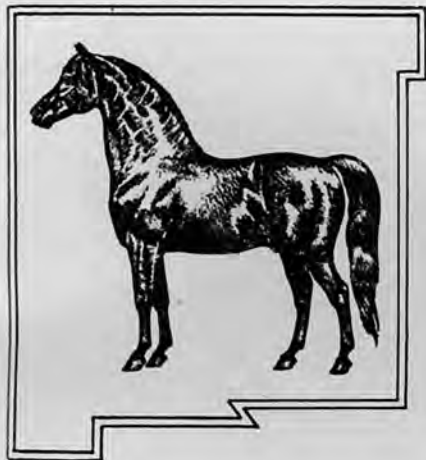

Milford's daughter Susie has always attended school with Amish youngsters. Susie says just as half the little girls in our schools are named Cindy, half the girls in her school are named Esther.

Pa never sees a bearded Dutchman go by that he doesn't wonder, "Do they sleep with the beard in or out of the bedcovers?"

The weather had turned cold overnight. The wind had changed direction and was blowing in the open barn windows. The Morab filly, here for training, had a belly ache. Pa knew she was just cold, needed warming up. We were out of ginger, and had no whiskey around. (No, not even for medicinal purposes!) Pa was trying to figure out a way to save a trip to town when he spotted the tail end of a bottle of vodka. He added some hot water to the vodka, drenched the filly and led her around. In no time, the belly ache was gone and the filly felt GREAT.

About the second time Pa was on this filly's back, the wind was blowing and the leaves were rolling, and the filly looking to shy at everything.

Morgans in the Land of Enchantment

By LORRAYNE C. BYERS

FAIRLEA'S DON JUAN and little friend (Upwey Ben Don x Monterey Belle) owned by W. K. Woodward, M. D.

The prospect of 12,000 pairs of eyes glued to proud going Morgans is stimulating! In the southwest we are elated! We are informed that the New Mexico State Fair Board has selected our Morgan Roadsters as one of the very few classes to appear in conjunction with a night performance of the all-star Rodeo. This privilege of showing before capacity crowds at night performances in Tingley Coliseum is limited to only those horse show classes which have enough color and spectator appeal to compete with rodeo. The 1961 New Mexico State Fair broke all previous records for attendance with a total gate of 504,000. Tingley Coliseum night shows attracted a total of 75,000 total attendance, with four all full-house records of 12,000 each included. Rodeo is not the only attraction with which the Morgan will be keeping company. 1961 headlined such prominent entertainers as Red Skelton and Andy Griffith. The New Mexico Club promises the most in western hospitality and naturally, perfect weather, to the many Morgan exhibitors around the country planning to attend the New Mexico State Fair. September, 1962 in "The Land of Enchantment" and Albuquerque — a tremendous Morgan show and the greatest of opportunities to get Morgans before a huge, interested crowd!

We are very happy to welcome some new members — with Texas and New Mexico well represented, naturally we are pleased to include Arizona, our neighbor to the west and Oklahoma. Mr. Frank Good, formerly of Independence, Mo. and now of Scottsdale, Arizona, and a past Morgan owner has indicated that once acquainted with the breed the fever never really fades. He hasn't any Morgans at present, but is busy looking for the start of a new band. From Oklahoma we welcome

Dr. T. H. Conklin. Dr. Conklin has a good number of Morgans, some of which are well known to us through their wins in the show ring, his most recent winner being the bay Dottie C., Champion Mare at Santa Fe. From Raton, New Mexico we are pleased to receive Mr. Levi Turner, New Mexico State Representative, and son, owners of the mare Shy Ann, her weanling stallion by Captain Blaze and another young stallion.

Our last meeting featured a discussion of the problems of the show Morgan (length of foot; weight of shoes) as did the previous meeting. Each speaker, regardless of point of view, was very sincere in his presentation. Mr. Hughes Seewald of Amarillo, Texas read the communications he had received from the contacts he had been appointed to make, in addition to one received unsolicited. Those read were from Mr. Gerald Taft, Pres., Mr. Seth Holcombe, Sec'y. and Mr. Stuart Hazard, Director of The Morgan Horse Club, and from the American Horse Shows Assn. The letter from Mr. Taft was especially informative regarding the specialization of the show Morgan, something which we must realize whether we accept it as ideal or not, and we greatly appreciate the time and trouble these respected people took to try and help us resolve the controversial issue. Their communications will certainly be of help to the committee appointed under the Chairmanship of Hughes Seewald. A fair and reasonable resolution for the consideration of the membership is expected of this group.

Another committee charged with a responsibility of great importance to us in the west is the one assigned to work out a practical, distinctive reining pattern for the Morgan horse. As this is a western club geographically, we feel that the promotion of a working show

Due to a rather inadequate supply of news it was impossible for me to get together a November column. I hope now that winter is upon us you will have time to gather up all your news from the summer and fall — my address will be found at the end of the column — it was mistakenly omitted from the October issue.

It was gratifying to see so many people at the Weanling Sale but a monstrous disappointment to see all those fine colts bring such low prices. It is hard to find an explanation — but you can be sure that in two or three years some of these colts will really be in the limelight.

I received a nice letter from Milford Fox of Middlefield, Ohio recently reporting the sale of a mare and two fillies to New England. The new owner is Meril A. May of New York City but the horses are stabled at his farm, Thunder Hill, Middlefield, Mass. under the management of C. D. Vreeland, III. He also purchased at least one other mare from the Ohio area. The mare Mr. May purchased is Val's Vicky (L. U. Colonel x Devan Val). Vicky, in addition to her primary use as a broodmare, should make a nice pleasure mare. The registrations on the fillies is pending but their breeding is as follows: one is out of Val's Vicky by Cap's Bimbo and the other is by Cap's Bimbo out of Cap's Pride. They will be in Massachusetts by the first of November.

Mr. Fox also conveys how anxiously he is awaiting the foals of Deerfield Challenger as his mares are primarily line bred to Mansfield. He hopes to use a Ben Don son on Challenger's daughters.

We welcome Mr. May and Mr. Vreeland into the Morgan world and wish them success in their program.

The final placings of the CMHA High Score Awards are as follows:

Stallion: Champion, BROADWALL MASSAI, Bruce MacDonald/Lenyard; Reserve, WIND-CREST WINFIELD, Diane Farley, East Haven; 3rd, BAY STATE FLYON, Phyllis Quagliaroli, Windsor.

MARE: Champion, BAR-T-FEATHER D., Tralas Morgan Horse Farm, No. Stonington; Reserve, WIND-CREST PRIMA DONA, R. C. Lasbury, E. Windsor Hill; 3rd, NABOB'S MELISSA, Constance Meussig, Glastonbury.

Gelding: Champion, WIND-CREST FIREBALL, R. C. Lasbury, E. Windsor Hill; Reserve, U. C. CANTOR, Virgil Scussell, Stonington; 3rd, TORMENTOR, Charles Clifford, Hazardville.

PERFORMANCE CHAMPIONS

Stallions: Champion WIND-CREST WINFIELD; Reserve, BAY STATE FLYON; 3rd, CAYENNE PEPPER, Sinn Fein Farm, Waterford.

Mares: Champion, BAR-T-FEATHER D.; Reserve, BROADWALL PATTI, Sinn Fein Farm, Waterford; 3rd, WIND-CREST PRIMA DONA.

Geldings: Champion, WIND-CREST FIREBALL; Reserve, U. C. CANTOR; 3rd, U. C. TORIN, Marianne J. Drake, W. Suffield.

Colts: Champion, CAYENNE PEPPER (two year old) Sinn Fein Farm; Reserve, ORCLAND GAY KNIGHT (yearling) Stuart Wickson, Gales Ferry; 3rd, BROADWALL SPANGLE (yearling) Tralas Morgan Horse Farm.

Outside Competition: Champion, BAR-T FEATHER D.; Reserve, CAYENNE PEPPER; Reserve, WHIP-POORWILL GAY SONG, McCulloch Farm, Old Lyme; 3rd, ORCLAND SILVER DON, Tralas Morgan Horse Farm.

Ralph Lasbury of E. Windsor Hill has sold his chestnut mare, Wind-Crest Prima Dona (Upwey Ben Don x Ingrid) to Mr. John Hamlin of Bennington, Vermont. I believe the mare is in foal to Waseeka's Nocturne.

The Arthur Hounsleas are real pleased with their mare, Bar-T Feather D., for having won the High Score Award in Performance. She was capably shown in most of her performance classes by Mary Ellen Vichinsky.

MAINE

Margaret Gardiner sent a letter with several Maine items and some photographs. Muriel Burnheimer of North Waldoboro had a very nice filly by Parade's Jubilee out of Poppycock that she is pleased with. It is the first foal for this young stallion.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Dock in Bethel have purchased Lippitt Molly Moro, chestnut foaled 1958 by Lippitt Selassie x Natick Moro Independence from the Green Mt. Stock Farm in Randolph, Vt. They also purchased the weanling chestnut stallion Towne-Ayr Gaynekomen from Mrs. Roderick Towne of Montpelier, Vt. They hope to get more mares after their barn is remodeled.

Waldo E. Robinson of Bangor has sold the gelding Rocklyn to W. M. Wylie also of Bangor.

MASSACHUSETTS

Barry Caisse of Leominster has been called into the Army and is presently at Fort Dix in New Jersey. His two horses, one the young Morgan stallion, Green Mountain Early Bird, (Orcland Vigildon x Royalton Twilight) will be taken care of by his parents, Sylvia and Al Caisse.

Dorothy Wilson of Long Hill Farm in Bolton has sold her yearling filly, Long Hill Vigiltora (Orcland Vigildon x U. C. Torsha) to Dr. and Mrs. Robert Hummer of Jamesville, N. Y. Two year old Green Dream Lady Lee (Orcland Leader x Deerfield Lady Oakland) will be home for the winter having been started in harness and saddle work at Orcland Farms in West Newbury.

Waseeka Farm has purchased the mare, Wind-Crest Delight from Mrs. F. O. Davis of Windsor, Vt. Mrs. Power is really pleased as she is a full sister to their lovely Wind-Crest Sentimental Lady. She will be bred to

We have to open our column this time with an apology to our member, Georgia Sweet Pfister, for in our announcement, last month, of her recent marriage, we spelled her new name "Pfieffer." Next, we must apologize to the Sweet family for referring to their newly purchased colt (full brother to Rhythm's Bimbo) as Bold Fortune O. His name is Beau Fortune O. Don't know how these mistakes occurred — we knew better.

At the invitation of Mr. and Mrs. Orwin Osman, our Oct. meeting was held at their home near Manteno, Ill. A number of guests were present, among them Mr. Harry Andre, president of the Mid-America Morgan Club. We saw all of the Osmans' Morgans (many of them grand-children of Archie O) but missed that versatile and sweet tempered stallion, Emerald's Co-chiese, who had gone, a few days before, to his new home at Brattleboro, Vermont. We also saw a pretty Saddle-bred mare, owned by a boarder, which is to be bred to Emerald's Skychief for a half-Morgan foal. We are always interested in these Half-Morgans and are glad to see more of them in this area.

We hear from the Henry Rensmans of Wheaton, Illinois, that their black Morgan, Gold Band Archie, is now a gelding. He was a very beautiful and typey stallion and should make a gelding to be proud of.

Nancy Coombes, of South Elgin, Ill., reports the sale of her Morgan gelding, Caven-Glo High Capri, but we don't yet have the name of his new owner. Nancy says she must have more time to put into their business and that all her spare time now is taken up with the training of Radar, her half-Morgan colt by Rhythm's Bimbo. "Cappy" is broke to ride either English or Western and this summer has learned to pull a cart. We are sure that his new family will find him a real pleasure horse (and to this writer's mind, there is no higher praise).

You'll never guess what Dorian Ashmore has been doing! Under the erroneous impression that he was coming four years old last spring, Dorian has been contending mightily in the mature stallion classes this year in all the shows. (And bringing home the bacon, too). Looking at the ribbons he won showing against older horses, it seems likely that nothing could have stood before him if he had been shown in his own age group. He is only three years old and I think his owners, the Martin Staehnke's of Winfield, have been considering hanging themselves to the nearest tree since they discovered the mistake, but we hope they will think better of it and look forward with confidence to Dorian's next year's campaign.

Sally Schubert, staff artist on our Newsletter, has, for the second time, had a drawing accepted for publication in the Arabian Horse News. This is a fine sketch of the stallion, Bright Diamond. Having seen Sally's sketch books which abound with equally good and lively drawings of Morgans, we

The North Central All Morgan Horse Show was held at Honer's Wildwood Ranch in St. Joseph, Minnesota on Sunday, September 24. Although the weather had been quite cool and crisp the night before, the day of the show turned out to be a beautiful autumn day sunshine, pleasantly warm, and no rain. About 40 Morgans turned out for the halter and performance classes.

The High Point Trophy for the horse with the most performance points went to Archie N owned by Mel Jensen of Minneapolis. Placings in the performance classes are as follows:

Reserve Champion Mare: CINNA owned by W. F. Honer.

Speaking for the North Central Morgan Club as a whole, I wish to express my thanks to the Honors of St. Joseph for their gracious hospitality to all the Morgan club members. Also our thanks to Mr. Carnes of St. Paul who again judged his third Morgan show in this area this year, and to Stan Sahlstrom who acted as ring master. Also to Louis Nassef — who did a bang-up job of announcing the show. And a very special thanks to Pamela Honer and her girl friends who made such a great success of the food booth — which I know was thoroughly appreciated by all.

Received a very welcome letter from Mrs. Arthur Dracy of Brookings, South Dakota, giving me the news of that area since the Brookings Horse Show in July.

"At our South Dakota State Fair on Labor Day, we had approximately 40 registered Morgans from a four state area. Dr. Keiser of Iowa State was the judge. Our horses placed very well. June Marie, our prize 3 year old mare placed first in her class. Our one year old filly, R'surene Princess, was Reserve Champion. R'surene Patsy, weanling foal placed first in her class. Our daughter Susan's aged mare, Beauty, placed fifth out of twenty. In the Get of Sire, our group of three out of Milaca Query, placed first. In the Get of Dam class out of Susan's Beauty we also placed first.

Mrs. Dracy went on to say that the Max Meyer family who had just recently returned from Washington, D. C., did not have their two mares home from Maryland, but they did show their stallion, Sunnyview Robin, who was Grand Champion. "We are neighbors," she added, "and enjoy riding and talking 'Morgan talk'."

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Waldner, also of Brookings, entered their Sunflower Kay, and aged mare and placed fourth and their unnamed filly placed second. So Mrs. Dracy feels that South Dakota made a very good showing at the fair.

Mrs. Dracy tells me they attended the Estes Park Morgan Show this summer, took many movies and pictures and would be happy to show them at our annual meeting in December if they turn out. Certainly am looking forward to seeing these movies, as I'm sure all the rest of our North Central Morgan members will be at the December 2nd annual meeting.

Received a very interesting letter from Mr. and Mrs. Del Johnson of Honeydel Farms, McLean, Nebraska, who are so interested in Morgans that they subscribe to the Morgan Horse Magazine even though they own no Morgans. They have a grade mare which they had planned to breed to a Morgan stallion, but find there are no longer any Morgan stallions in the immediate vicinity. They also collect buggies and carriages and as they say, "are all set for a gay 90's class." "Company is always welcome," they add. "From the junction of highways 81 and 20, go north 3 miles on 81 and west 2 1/4 miles."

Morgans Wow Spectators at Harrisburg

By ANNA ELA

The 1961 Horse Shows, that offered Morgan classes, came to a close with a real bang this year. The curtain came down on one of the best and largest Morgan Stake classes ever held at an all breed show. The Pennsylvania National Horse Show, held in Harrisburg, had the largest entry of Morgans in its history. The Morgans were all top individuals and every one was well presented, a great credit to the breed. There were more Morgans in their stake class than in any other breed stake class. The only other horses to top the Morgans in number shown were the hunters and jumpers.

If you have never been at this show you don't realize what you have missed. Next year take your Morgan or Morgans and you will have the thrill of showing in one of the largest shows in the country. You will also have the opportunity of seeing some of the best horseflesh in the U. S. A. There were more than 900 entries at the show this year. The International Equestrian teams all compete here. This year five teams were jumping for their countries. They were Argentina, Canada, Ireland, Mexico and of course, the United States. There were other special attractions also, such as the Victor Adding Machine Six Pony Hitch, a chariot race, etc. Incidentally, the chariots driven and horses were the same as were in the movie "Ben Hur." There never was a dull moment. The stabling is good and the coliseum is excellent. Everything you desire is all under one roof.

When the smoke had cleared away in the Morgan Championship Stake class, with sixteen entries all performing in top form, the nod of the three judges went to Waseeka's Nocturne. This climaxed a very successful season for Waseeka Farms of Ashland, Mass. Johnny Lydon gave Nocturne a great ride. Not far behind Nocturne came the Voorhis Farms Sealect of Windcrest, with Fred Herrick up. Here again, "Woody" put on one of his best performances to gain the reserve championship. This class was a real thrill to watch. It came on Friday night before a packed house of several thousand spectators. Every horse and exhibitor was well turned out. What a credit to the breed! We, on the sidelines were proud to be able to say to ourselves that we owned horses of that breed too. This was a very difficult class to judge. There were horses here from six states and all had won at home. Here they were competing with champions only. No wonder they called in an extra judge! I saw one horse left out of the ribbons I would give anything to own. This was certainly a great class.

Another very pretty and well turned out class was the Harness class on Thursday night. Here thirteen entries really had to work. How those silver wheels glittered under the lights! A great class to watch. When the glittering had ceased, Reata Farm of Ohio with Vigilmarc had the blue pinned to his bridle. This must have been a great thrill for Mr. Andreoli, as he was driving his stallion himself. In at a close second was Orcland Ike owned by Mr. and Mrs. David L. Brockett of Ipswich, Mass. Lyman Orcutt was the whip. This horse put on a great show.

The pleasure class, on Saturday afternoon, was a good class, too. All the ten entries were easy going and well behaved. This must have been quite a day for Pat Tataronis. This was her last ride on Vigilendon. Vigilendon has been sold by Dr. Robert Orcutt to the Darwin Morses. Pat ended the show career, for the great gelding, by topping the class. A terrific swan song for the top pleasure horse in New England. In at second place was a very easy going three year old mare owned by Mrs. John Noble of Pa.

The Morgan classes started on Wednesday, October 18, with the under 15 hands class. In this class were 14 entries. The competition was so even that four top Morgans were lost in the shuffle. There was one judge in this class, but for the rest of the show they had to call in a second judge because the competition was so close.

Well, it is that time again and even though we don't have too much news right now, we must wish you all a very Merry Christmas and the very best in the New Year. We just know that it will be a record year for our wonderful Morgans and for their owners.

Lots of new registrations here — should be to the 100 mark pretty quick:

68. DESIREE (Royalton Ashbrook Darling x Filara) Owned by John Steckle, Kitchener, Ont.
69. THE MARKSMAN (Lippitt Mandate x Ruthvtn's Barbara Ann) Owned by John Steckle.
70. LIPPITT ROSE MARIE (Lippitt Mora Alert x Lippitt Rhoda) Owned by Mrs. Lorna E. Panos, Almonte, Ont.
71. LIPPITT MINT LASS (Lippitt Selassie x Lippitt Spearmint) Owned by Mrs. Lorna E. Panos, Almonte, Ont.
72. VICTORY'S FINALE (Jubilee's Victory x Spring Lefty) Owned by George F. Wade, Kentville, N. S.
73. MICKEY'S PIXY ANN (Mickey Finn x Ruthven's Barbara Ann) Owned by Mrs. L. Bruce Brown, Burlington, Ont.
74. SUNCREST BOY (Redberry x Tillcum) Owned by Horst Brothers, Newton, Ont.
75. O-AT-KA ROSA LEE (Lippitt Field Marshall x Lilly Belle) Owned by Graham Bockus, Fester, Quebec.

86. KILGORAN ROSALENNE (Travaille x Rosilyn) Owned by Kilgoran Morgan Farm, Miller, Alberta.
87. KILGORAN STARLENNE (Travaille x Faylenne) Owned by Kilgoran Morgan Farm, Miller.

The C. M. H. C. now boasts 50 members from coast to coast, with more and more interest being taken in the breed all the time. Now for the news:

BRITISH COLUMBIA

Understand that the Gerald Fahrnis' have purchased two mares from the Leo Beckleys, Mount Vernon, Wash. These are the 8 year old Lady Margaret (Glen Pomulus x Golden Princess) and the 10 year old Palomino mare Easter Glow (Nemaha Herod x Don Glow).

Okanagan Light Horse Improvement Show, Kelowna, B. C., Sept. 3 - 5

Morgan Line Class: Won by MON HEIR GRETCHEN, Mrs. C. Cookson; 2nd, PRINCESS JACQUELYN, Sally Claydon; 3rd, PRINCESS WILHELMINA, Sally Claydon; 4th, CHILLAWIST, Mrs. Cookson.
Child's Hack (Open): 3rd, PRINCESS WILHELMINA
The Interior Exhibition at Armstrong, B. C. also had Morgan classes but as yet we have not received the results.

PRAIRIES

Gordon Turney exhibited his stallion and one mare at the Central Alberta Judging Clinic held in Lacombe on October 22. Both looked very fit. Understand that Gordon also showed Morgans at the Red Deer Light Horse Show.

Kilgoran Morgan Farm's Rosilyn (Gay Mac x Hegrita) for 17 of her years was sound of limb and unblemished, now is recuperating from a badly cut front leg. The McDonalds' Morgans turned out in full force for a lovely fall trail ride held by the Millet Light Horse Club — Travaille, Kilgoran Fleetwood, Faylenne and Kilgoran Melody all gave their riders an excellent and most pleasurable ride.

The Daryl Beacons' are in the East at time of writing and according to Nancy, they're "sure going to do some horse visiting."

A letter from Mrs. Daphne Fordice of Maple Creek, Sask., told us of her Morgan gelding Anzac which died just this past spring at the age of 34. Mrs. Fordice has numerous trophies and ribbons won by this horse, some of them in jumping, especially the broad jump. The Fordice's also have an old Morgan mare that has raised many foals, two of which were by a Thoroughbred (excuse the language) stallion. These two were used on their chariots for eleven years and even ran as lead team on their chuckwagon at the world famous Calgary Stampede in '58.

There seems to be a great deal of interest in the Morgan springing up in Manitoba, about our only province without any Morgans at all. Hope this situation is remedied very soon. Miss Gloria Johnston of Brandon was a recent visitor to Minneapolis, Minn., where she visited with Mrs. Doris Hodgins and saw many good Morgans.

EASTERN

A new C. M. H. C. member, Dale Allen of Granby, Que., has purchased a very nice dark chestnut mare from Adele Foster, Windsor, Vt. She is Jubilee's Aurora by Jubilee's Courage and out of Spring Flame by Spring Field. Mr. Allen is boarding the mare at the Bockus' and last we heard she was progressing very nicely with harness training.

Broadwall Farm, R. I. has sold a yearling colt to a Montreal, Que., horseman. Understand it is a very nice animal.

The pretty little UVM Colfield Palomino filly which the Graham Bockus' recently purchased lost an eye in a freak accident. The Bockus' have been traveling again — took in the Weanling Sale then visited several breeders' farms. Could be they are looking for a good stallion foal?

The Panos of Almonte, Ont., have been very busy training their Lippitt Rose Marie, this past summer. Apparently their work paid off for daughter Gail took her to the Almonte Fair and took 3rd in an Open Line Class, and a first (under 14.2 h) and a 2nd (12.2 to 14.2 h) in saddle classes. They expect to have Morgan classes at that Fair next year.

What is this we hear about Cynthia Dunn buying an Arabian?

Mrs. Isobel Radforth, Dundas, Ont., has been elected director for the Ontario Zone. Meeting was held in Kingston, Ont. of the Ontario and Quebec members, the first part of November.

Bedford Fair, Aug. 12

Best Saddle Horse (open): 2nd, UVM COLFIELD, Colbrook Morgan Farm.
Gent's Saddle Horse (Open): 2nd, UVM COLFIELD
Western Parade (Open): 3rd, UVM COLFIELD.

Barton, Vermont, Aug. 19

Model Morgan (6): Won by UVM COLFIELD.
Open Driving (3): Won by UVM COLFIELD.
Morgan under Saddle (6): 3rd, UVM COLFIELD.
Believe the Bockus' showed at the Brome Fair also. Results next time.

MARITIMES

Still nothing for this area. Are you people still there?

GENERAL

Well after hearing Mr. Eusey rave about Jasper and surrounding area, your writer was offered a chance of a visit there and she certainly took it. It is always strange to me that people living within easy traveling distance of such places (in this case since birth), never seem to get to see them, yet tourists come thousands of miles just for this purpose. Didn't get to Maligne Lake tho' Mr. Eusey, but certainly where we did go was just as wonderful. You "Eastern bred" wouldn't believe the hundreds of miles of trails that there are to remote spots that are only accessible by these trails. Oh, for a Morgan and some camping equipment and about a month of nothing to do!

Northern California News

By SHIRLEY DAVIS

No. California Morgans ride the beach of the Pacific at San Francisco.

Fall Trail Ride

The sun shone bright and warm on San Francisco as 31 head of Morgans moved into Horsemen's Retreat at Golden Gate Park on October 14 to participate in the annual fall trail ride of the Northern California Morgan Horse Club. Expecting cooler weather and coastal fog, most of the riders brought wintry clothing that was never unpacked. Actually, we were in the midst of a heat wave.

There were four Morgan stallions on this ride. Rocky Bon, ridden by Chas. Sutfin, Sacramento; Monty Vermont ridden by Gene Davis, Lodi; Silvertown Morgan ridden by Jay Bailey, Wodland; and Baacamanto, ridden by Channing Cathcart, Los Altos Hills.

About 12 noon on Saturday, Ed Cantwell of the San Francisco Mounted Police, accompanied by Sgt. Jack Chaney (his boss), and Officer Art Mahoney, led the Morgan riders from the park to the beach of the blue Pacific. Due to high tides at the time, the ocean was very rough and waves were full and rolling way up on the beach. Most of the Morgans on this ride had never seen the ocean, and we all had a lot of laughs as we coaxed our mounts into the white water. The thing that seemed to bother them most was the whiteness and second, the movement. I don't believe the roar of the ocean affected them one bit.

We witnessed some of the prettiest side stepping you ever wanted to see. If you were able to keep your mount from stepping out of the surf completely and the water covered his feet, then he tended to side step toward the ocean away from the receding wave.

In one instance, Diana Davis, mounted on Boots, had held her mount until the wave reached its maximum. Boots was facing the shore and when the wave began to recede, the mare started backing to get away from it when a new wave slapped her on the rump. She nearly made the shore in one leap.

Marsha Davis, mounted on Rosy Vermont, rode beside me. (I was on Nell Blackman). A wave came in and we stopped our mares. The wave covered their feet and went on up the beach. Rosy saw the wave start to recede and side stepped toward the ocean at the same time a second wave was breaking. Nell saw the new wave coming and started side stepping toward the beach. When the two mares collided, Nell dug her feet into the sand and pushed Rosy out on the beach.

Gene Davis had his stallion, Monty Vermont, in the breakers up to his chest. In fact, one wave broke a little higher than average and Gene got a wet boot out of the deal.

It is difficult to describe all the experiences of the riders and their mounts, because at the time, everyone was busy with his own. The experiences I have cited are typical. It is for sure that the Morgan took this new experience in the inimitable way with which he has been endowed.

It was a dry ride and the equestrians soon began to feel as though they were on the Sahara Desert. We finally came to a small stream of fresh water, and after the horses had drunk, one member supplied a canteen which was filled from the tiny waterfall. The water was the most terrible tasting stuff I have ever encountered, but its wetness was so welcomed by all that not a complaint was heard.

The ride continued along the beach to Daly City where we were escorted to the median strip of the Skyway Freeway and headed back to San Francisco and Golden Gate Park. After a few miles, we left the freeway and took a double-drive street with a landscaped strip in the middle. A bridle path was nestled among the trees and bushes and upon both sides was lawn. It does seem that San Francisco quite caters to equestrians, except for the lack of watering troughs and fountains.

Dinner, and likewise breakfast, was catered at Horsemen's Retreat, the arrangements for which were made by our good member Chas. Sutfin. Horses were bedded in various places such as corral, trailers, and tie stalls. Some members brought sleeping bags and stayed at the park. Some made accommodations elsewhere.

Sunday, the mounted police escorted the riders on a circle through Golden Gate Park. We did not, and could not, cover the entire park. It was a pleasant surprise to find that in this park, nestled in the center of one of the largest cities in California, it is possible to feel quite remote from the paved streets jammed with traffic and sidehills with one house plastered right onto the next. There is at least one of every kind of tree known to man in the park including the ancient Ginkgo tree from China. We passed by man-made lakes; one for boating, one for fishing, and some just to house ducks, swans, geese, and such waterbirds. At one place I saw an elderly couple feeding approximately 15 mallard ducks. The ducks came right up to their feet. In another instance I saw a racoon nosing around a campfire and picnic area. The only fox we saw had been run over on the freeway. But what a lovely retreat for residents of a large city and hum drum life.

Our trail wound around and up and soon we were on top of a hill overlooking the Golden Gate Bridge. On this hilltop, there was a man-made pond, lined with colorful rocks and at one end there was a rock mound to simulate a waterfall.

Buckeye BREEZE

By PAULINE ZELLER

Show season is now over for another year and the time is here for pulling shoes, storing away tack and show riding habits, giving the show horses a rest, and, also it is the time to start getting the young horses trained and ready to start on the show circuit for next year.

Ending the show season with a good win in the Morgan Harness Class at the large Harrisburg, Pennsylvania show was Reata Farm's four year old stallion, Vigilmarch. Vigilmarch won this class over 14 entries from all over the United States, and Reata Farm is justifiably proud of him.

A correction is due on the show results from the Mid-Western Show at Columbus over the 4th of July. It was reported that the Reserve Champion Morgan Stallion was Devan Jason, as was reported to me by the Mid-Western Show Secretary. I received a card from Sugar Run Farm of Mt. Sterling correcting this. Their young stallion, Tarrytown was pinned Reserve Champion Morgan Stallion. I am certainly sorry that this error occurred.

The Ohio Morgan Breeders Futurity was held September 20, 1961 at the Ashland County Fairgrounds, Ashland, Ohio. This was by far our best year yet, with 19 weanlings, 13 yearlings and 3 two-year-olds. The two-year old harness class was small due to the fact that the yearling class last year was quite small. From the number of yearlings entered this year, it should be a good sized class of two year olds next year. The condition of all the colts was excellent, they looked wonderful, were in good shape and well presented and the quality was superb. If the Futurity this year is any indication, Ohio certainly is on the right track with their breeding program. It certainly was difficult to pick a winner in any of the classes for they all looked like blue ribbon winners. This seemed to be the year for O.C.R. colts for both the Champion Weanling and the Reserve Champion Weanling were sired by O.C.R. The Reserve Champion Weanling, Miss Step Along, owned by John C. Trushel, Chesterland, Ohio, is out of Bar F. First Lady, and the Champion Weanling, Freeman's Rockfire, owned by Dr. Marvin S. Freeman of Strongsville, Ohio, is out of Kaki-Bon. In the Yearling Division, Reata Farm of Sharon Center had the Champion with Reata Kid by Fleetwing and out of Crown Jewel. The Reserve Champion Yearling went to Freeman's June Morn by O.C.R. and out of June Mischief, owned by Dr. Marvin S. Freeman. In the Two year old Harness division, Foxfire's Baby by Foxfire and out of Shoo-Shoo Baby, took the Championship for the Ken Berlekamps of Fremont, Ohio, and Reserve Champion went to Captivator by Big Bil B and out of Lady of Leisure, owned by T. D. Ulrich of Lebanon, Ohio. Complete results of the Futurity are as follows:

The keynote of this month's column can be summarized in the word "new." Spring Delite (John Geddes x Bar-bette), Mrs. Walter Kane's champion mare has found a new home in Fort Lauderdale, Florida with the Smith family. The Smiths plan to show "Dee" throughout the South next year, and we are sure that she will do her best to add more championships to her impressive record for them.

Miss Joan Bower of Midland added a new companion for her stallion, Cotton Eye Joe Geddes, with the purchase of Springbrook Stata's 1961 colt from Stanerigg Farm in Ann Arbor.

Hoping for a new arrival in the Spring are Dr. and Mrs. Cecil Jackson of Ann Arbor, who just acquired Bonnie Ann (in foal to Cloverland Justin Geddes) from the Norman Risks, Cloverlane Farm in Ypsilanti.

Springbrook Camille (Quizkid x Golly) will have a new look at the Massachusetts landscape with her new owner, Mr. Lyman Orcutt. The six-year old mare is leaving Mr. and Mrs. Walter Carroll's Green Hill Farm at Farmington. They also sold another mare, Roubikate (Roubidou x Kitty Hawk) to Mr. Larry Dooley of Columbus, Ohio.

Lest it sound as though the Carrolls are going out of the "Morgan business," they wish to announce their purchase of a striking three year old stallion named Danbury (Sealect of Windcrest x Tivoli) who just arrived from Voorhis Farm at Red Hook, New York. Danbury came just in time to debut at a season-closing show in Flint, Michigan, where he won the Morgan Fine Harness class. It is gratifying to see Michigan breeders bringing new blood and competition to this area. Mr. Gerald Taft of Northville is doing the same with his purchase of a fine yearling filly at the Green Mead Colt Sale this year.

At the Flint Horse Show (held indoors, which pleased both horse and rider at this time of year), ribbon collectors picked up new displays for their tackrooms. Springbrook Mansfield, Mr. Edgar Mansfield's stallion, placed second in Fine Harness. Placings in Morgan Western Pleasure were: 1st, Macanjo's Cotton Lass, Joe Symons, Flint; 2nd, Sunflower Kitty, Mrs. Phillip Dorsey, Flint; 3rd, Cheriam, Judy Williams, South Lyon; 4th, Springbrook Gypsy, Floyd Voss, Detroit. Cotton Lass had a "triple crown" day, winning the 4-H Class and placing second in Horsemanship 14-17 years. Foxfire Suzay of Green Hill Farm, won the English Performance class, and Mr. and Mrs. James Jones' mare, Gay Soubrette, was second.

Miss Elizabeth Staebler of Ann Arbor is quite happy with her new gelding Sandy K (Walthor x Miss K) purchased from Woods and Water Farm.

Club members found a new friend in Dr. Ben H. Green, Texas veterinarian and Director of the International Quarter Horse Breeders Association. Dr. Green attended our Halloween dance as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Risk. He spent a few days looking over our Morgans and perhaps they made a little dent in his interest in that "other" breed.

Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Earehart of Northville are planning new and expanded training facilities. Eddie, who is one of our most accomplished trainers, is building a 112' x 72' barn with 16 box stalls and an indoor ring.

Speaking of trainers, I feel that we should thank Eddie Earehart, Francis (Razz) LaRose, John Williams, and of course, Henry Jennings, new to Morgan classes this year, but nationally known for his work with other breeds. These men set examples of sportsmanship and training standards for us to follow, and we have benefited greatly from the experience of watching them and learning from them. They, and the large Michigan breeders, are generous in giving pointers to "one horse" Morgan owners, and it is this spirit of willingness to help "the competition" that makes owning and showing Morgans more profitable and enjoyable.

Our Annual Fall Trail Ride, held at Highland Recreation Area, was an appropriate ending to our outdoor activities for this year. The site of our campfire was a sheltered area ringed by trees — and horse trailers. Many horses that had known only the circle of the show ring all summer provided new thrills by proving their ability as

New York State News

The New York State All-Morgan Show, held in Syracuse on October 7th and 8th, was again a smashing success. Some of the top horses in the East competed and winners also came from Pennsylvania and the Mid-West. There were 141 entries.

The club wishes to give special thanks to the out-of-state exhibitors who helped in a big way to make our show outstanding. We appreciated your presence. Please come again.

The N. Y. Club is also proud of the young riders in the show. Some who are under 21 are Mike Hoefen, Sheryl Smith, Craig Wilcox, David Pengelly, The Plauth girls, Jackie Larrabee, Christine Chichester, Ann Lomber, Lee Ann Ryder, the Knolls girls, Frances Franks, Ruth Mercer, Mike and Tommy Hens, Michell Nunn, Salle Richards, Alice Pat Mahoney, and we think Jane MacDonald and Misses Barrett and Nelson are also in this age group. They are a credit to show business and to the Morgan division.

To those who asked about "that cute little curly headed child who sits up so straight" may we reply that she is MRS. Douglas Dalrymple of Elmira. Polly gets a kick out of people saying "Is your mother here?"

One of the big hits of the show was 10 yr. old Michell Nunn, riding Curt Smith's Pandi's Juanita to ribbons in at least three classes. This mite of a girl got the very best out of Pandi just in from pasture and still nursing a foal, and the audience reaction was terrific.

Another popular exhibit was the old fashioned costume class. Here Hortense Lynds drew down big applause, nattily dressed in bustle, velvet cape, pancake horsehair bonnet and chate-laine handbag. She looked smart and pretty as well as old fashioned. Nancy Knolls, riding sidesaddle skillfully and gracefully in a really beautiful authentic habit, complete with top hat and scarf, also caught the public fancy. How this girl can ride that thing! Another side saddle rider proceeded with caution, since in the practice ring, the saddle had turned on the round backed Morgan and dumped her unceremoniously. Mildred Dalton provided comedy with herself and her stallion attired in patched tramp outfits, complete with straw hats on both, and followed by a "barefoot boy" who clung to this gentle stud's tail and sat down on his front feet when they lined up. Mildred is good with horses.

Pictures of show winners will appear in the next issue. Most of us are still waiting for proofs from our official photographer as we go to press.

Complete results appear at the end of this report.

Horror story of the month is the burning of the barn at Nancy Gochee's Wildwood Morgan Farm. All the horses were saved, also the contents of the tack room including ribbons and trophies, and the pet skunk. But the good, recently remodeled barn, and the winter's supply of hay and straw was lost.

Nancy and Jerry Kipp had just finished working in the barn, when Jerry happened to look into the loft and saw flames. Five minutes later Nancy and Jerry would have been gone from the building and rescue presumably would have been impossible. We are deeply thankful that those fine horses escaped disaster.

They are presently stabled at nearby Vernon Downs. Nancy, however, hopes to have her own new barn ready sometime in December.

Mildred Dalton writes that Raymond Acre of Sterling, N. Y. has laid to rest his stallion, Mando. Mando was 30 years old, and Mr. Acre owned him all those years. He was a grand Morgan, full of presence and personality. We know how much he is missed.

Illinois State Fair

BELAFINA 010333 (Senator Graham x Jubilee Joy) 2 year old chestnut mare winner of Grand Champion Mare, and $1,000.00 Land of Lincoln Harness Stake owned by Mr. and Mrs. L. S. Greenwalt, Pawnee, Ill.

The 1961 Illinois State Fair, held August 11 through 20, found the best Morgans in the mid-west competing for honors in twenty-three well-filled classes. The performance classes were particularly pleasing this year, from the standpoint of quantity as well as quality.

Lewis and Janet Pape of Pawnee, Ill., again acted as color bearers, opening each performance of the society show. Their mounts, the dark chestnut stallion Mr. Breezy Cobra, and his daughter, Janet's Julia, attracted a good deal of attention with their typical Morgan looks and action.

Wearing the title of Grand Champion Stallion for the second year in a row was the dark chestnut three-year old Lucky Stone. In accomplishing this feat he had to defeat horses such as Hylee's Top Brass and Windcrest Playboy, two stallions that have been consistent winners this year. Lucky Stone, by Colonel's Boy out of Lenora Felix, is owned by Mr. and Mrs. L. S. Greenwalt.

An up and coming two year old mare was crowned Grand Champion Mare. The chestnut Belafina, by Senator Graham out of Jubilee Joy, won not only her breed class, but took the blues in both the 2 Year Old Futurity Fine Harness and the Land of Lincoln Fine Harness Classes. Her performances in these classes were outstanding, as well they might have to be to defeat horses of the caliber shown.

ways by taking the Morgan Stake, with Abby Graham, owned by Ka-Roy Farm of Mansfield, Ohio, making a fine showing to place second. Brassy also won the Under 15 Hands Class and the Open Fine Harness Class.

As mentioned above, Belafina won the Land of Lincoln Fine Harness Class. Roy Brunk's well-known show mare, Maudette was second. T. T. Brunk's strong-moving mare Daisanna carried off the blue in the Land of Lincoln Saddle Class, with the Greenwalt's Starfly second.

The Futurity classes were strong; well-filled with lots of quality. The champion weanling was a beautiful bay filly with a way of going like a born show horse. Irish Breeze, owned by Mr. and Mrs. Ed Ryan of Delavan, Ill. is by Mr. Breezy Cobra out of Ella Bar. The Reserve Champion Weanling was one of the first foals sired by Lucky Stone, the dark chestnut filly, Precious Stone, out of Jenney Lake, owned by Mr. and Mrs. Greenwalt.

Another bay filly, Barett, topped the Yearling Futurity Division for Mr. and Mrs. Ed Ryan. She was Champion Weanling last year so just continued where she left off. Reserve was the pretty chestnut mare, Hylee's Split Silk, owned by Hylee's Farms, Cambria, Wisc.

The Two Year Old Futurity Fine Harness was won by Belafina. Second was Big Bend Farms lovely bay mare, Big Bend Cinnamon Velvet, sired by Cinnamon King out of Velvet R. M. She is a mare most people would be proud to have in their barn.

The judges this year were Bill Cunningham, Mexico, Mo.; E. B. Ogan, Lexington, Ky.; and J. Parish Lewis, Milwaukee, Wisc.

ALONG THE RAIL

The Papes, owners of Mr. Breezy Cobra, had good reason to be proud of their high-stepping stallion. His foals and young stuff were right there in the ribbons every time, with that "Breezy" look and way of going. In the Weanling Mare Futurity Class, his colts were 1, 2, and 3, all bay fillies anyone would like to have. Other colts were 4th in the Weanling Stallion Futurity Class, 3rd and 4th in the Two-Year Old Fine Harness Class, 6th in Land of Lincoln Fine Harness, 1st in 2 Year Old Stallions, 2nd and 5th in Yearling Stallions, 3rd in 2 Year Old Mares, 2nd and 5th in Yearling Stallions, 3rd in 2 Year Old Mares, 1, 2, and 3 in Weanling Mares.

Seen visiting around the stables and in the coliseum watching the show were some Morgan people who are usually too busy showing to watch anything. Mr. and Mrs. Ray Searls, Ernest McElhinney, Dr. King and the Werts' were among the spectators for the first time in a number of years.

The Ryans were justly proud of their bay mare Ella Bar, for her last two colts have been really something. Barett (by Chief Red Hawk) was Champion Yearling, while Irish Breeze was Champion Weanling. Little Irish Breeze received quite an ovation from a packed coliseum Saturday afternoon

Mid Atlantic Morgan Club

By AYELIEN RICHARDS

Emily Horns reported the sale of her filly, Lee's Caravelle (Parade x Broadwall Felicity) to Mrs. Glenn Barr, Framingham, Mass.

While at the very successful New York State Morgan Show (Syracuse) which is no doubt written up in the New York column, Dr. Carroll Kring of Reading, Penna., purchased from Dr. Wm. Bachman, Amherst, N. Y., the outstanding and excellent gelding Tom Timlin (Roxie's Archie x Westfall Blythe). This cute gelding is to be a pleasure horse and is well liked in the area. As is Dr. Bachman's custom, Tom Timlin is named for a football official, understandably too, as Wm. Bachman is a former football official himself and is honoring his friends!

The Donald Longs of Johnstown, N. Y., had a wonderful showing of their stock against top Morgans at Syracuse. The weanling Rubilyn (Lord Linsley x Ruby Hawk) and the yearling Major-ette Hawk (Major Mildann x Ruby Hawk) were named Futurity Champions.

Muriel Gordon enclosed a snap of her daughter riding sidesaddle on S. flower Belle (Larry Colonel x Isobel) and reports the sale of "Sunny's" 1961 colt, Colonel Sealect (by Sealectman) to Gene and Jane Giffen of Medusa, N. Y.

Tally Ho (Lippitt Moro Ash x Ruthven's Beatrice Ann), the well known gelding, will be missed by the Bob Niermans as they sold him to Dr. and Mrs. Joseph White of Spring City, Penna., their first Morgan. The Niermans are still looking for a filly with as much Morgan look as Tally Ho.

Dorothy Bachman was sure thrilled to see her little Georgina Twilight (Lippitt Sam Twilight x Lippitt Georgiana) tied 3d in the outstanding pleasure horse stake at Syracuse with her nephew Tommy Hens aboard. Dorothy is very high on this combination and a real threat in pleasure classes with this little mare, only 3 at the time in her 3rd show! There were 32 topnotch Morgans in that Stake class which was won by a four year old gelding from Richard's ranch, Talisman (Lippitt Mandate x Lippitt Saly Moro).

Mrs. Henry Mangels, Miami, Florida notes that Lucille Kenyon has requested a spring booking to the outstanding stud prospect RR. Mr. Pepperman (Lippitt Mandate x Little Miss Pepper). Pepperman is coming on well in his schooling and is a real show horse.

High hopes for an outstanding foal will make up for temporarily abandoning the successful show career of Mandate's Peggy Lou (Lippitt Mandate x Ruthven's Nancy Ann) as she has been pronounced safe in foal to a young stallion Windcrest Gallant (Upwey Ben Don x Lepatica) owned by Flora Newton, Pine City, N. Y. This is a proven cross in this family of horses but the Richards Ranch will surely miss the personable litte mare when the show season buds again in the spring! Peggy's first filly by another son of Ben Don was a Futurity Champion and is developing well now.

Miss Jo Costantino has her good gelding The Third Man (Lippitt Mandate x Dottie Irene) with Jane Lucinne of Malvern, Penna. and is delighted with "T" as he performs in the neighboring hunts. He is making a good account of himself with Thoroughbred hunters.

The Wm. Hopkins family is surely pleased with the veteran Manito (Lippitt Mandate x Vixen), as he recently won the Championship of the unique versatility show at Newtown Penna., put on by Ethel Gardner. Although a more detailed account will appear elsewhere it is well to note the other winners in the championship class, as Manito appeared in every event offered. Res. was Just-A-Sweetheart; 3rd, Mandate's Peggy Lou; 4th, Panetz; 5th, Nera Bellazza Pepper; 6th, The Third Man; 7th, Decoration Lady and 8th, Ran Bunctious. Fifteen Morgans turned out for this event, nearly all of them in each class making a lot of competition. Mr. Hopkins also reports that both Manito and the homebred-trained April Surprise (Nekomia's Archie x Lantz Flicka) are veteran hunters, sometimes going out two or three times each week! How's that for versatility?

The Burkes of Mt. Airy, N. C. have gelded Mandate Encore (Lippitt Mandate x Ginger Mildann) as planned. The future of this nice dispositioned colt looks very bright as he is very well liked by his new family.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Aldred of Somerville, Georgia, have just bought a registered broodmare to be crossed next spring with their young stallion Nabob's Welcome (Nabob Morgan x Lippitt Adeline). She is Pineland Fashion (Jolly Roger x Princess Field) purchased from Mrs. Norman Azoon of Columbus, Georgia. Fashion is now in foal to Mrs. Azoon's palomino stud Jubilation (Little Hawk x Jubilee's Golden Lassie).

John Diehl and Tim White of Ft. Lauderdale, Florida showed their newly purchased young mare Three Winds Betsy (Easter Twilight x Bald Mt. Petite Ann) in a recent two-day South Miami show. She was the only Morgan there, and the only classes for her were hack classes, where she had to compete with some top-notch hunters. Even so, in Adult classes she placed 3rd out of twelve entries, in the Open, 5th out of twenty-nine entries, and in the Everett Reed was re-elected president at the annual meeting held in Estes Park on Sunday, July 16, 1961. Bob Taylor, First Vice-President; Peggy Nichoalds, Second Vice-President; Joe Connors, Treasurer; and Ann Taylor, Secretary-Publicity Chairman completed the slate of officers elected. The following club members, as well as the officers listed above, will serve on the Board of Directors: Jim Banta, Patsy Brown, George Burgess, Dr. T. H. Conklin, Ramul Dvarishkis, Charley Hamilton, Stuart Hazard, Dean Jackson, Maxine Merchant, and Amos Mosher.

The 1961 Third Annual Western National All Morgan Show and Sale proved to be quite successful, fulfilling all our expectations. We were most fortunate in having Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Taft present. In addition to the Tafts, other distinguished guests included Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Orcutt, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Dayton Lockard and Dr. Searls from the University of Washington. We are certainly grateful to these people for their contribution to our show and meeting.

The average price for our sale horses was $676.00.

Since a show, of course, can be only as successful as the exhibitors make it, we would like to take this opportunity to express our appreciation to the 44 exhibitors who brought a total of 120 horses to the show. We regret very much that our show and sale results have not been made known through this publication as planned; however we will be glad to furnish the results to anyone upon request. Plans are already underway for a bigger and better Fourth Annual National Western All Morgan Horse Show — hope to see more new faces each year along with the old.

We would like to congratulate an active Circle J member, Dean Jackson, on an outstanding article on the Morgan Horse which appears in the All Breed issue of the Western Horseman Magazine. A job well done, Dean!

Another of our members, we hear, is busy with her Morgan "pastime". We understand that Peggy Nichoalds is in the East buying for her Topside Morgan Farm. Peggy, we feel, deserves a great amount of credit for her sincere interest in promoting and improving the breed together with her true competitive spirit — win or lose — at the shows.

Mississippi Valley News

A perfect fall day — country roads where the foliage was dressed in Autumn's varied colors — and a good horse to ride — these were enjoyed by the Mississippi Valley Morgan Horse Club members and guests on our annual fall trail ride. Mr. and Mrs. Royce Wilhauk, Sr., of Camp Don Bosco, Goldman, Mo., were hosts for the day.

About 25 riders, a few on Morgans, the rest on horses furnished by the Camp, participated in the ride, led by Phil Wilhauk, son of the Wilhauks. The route turned out to be longer than anticipated (leaving some of the riders slightly saddle sore). Riding Dr. McCarthy's mares Roselynn and Pleasant Lady were Rene Page and Barbara Monfort. The Niebruegge family brought four horses, among them their Morgan mare, Clover Queen. Dr. McCarthy rode one of the camp horses, as did Mary Gerhardt, Ricky Page, Mrs. Monfort, Lisa Clemens and her mother, John Gerhardt was driven about the countryside by Royce Wilhauk, Jr., wife Margie, and took movies of the ride which will be shown at a future meeting.

Non-riders Mr. and Mrs. Searls, Mr. and Mrs. Pocklington and Mr. and Mrs. Werts looked over the Wilhauk mares, colts and young horses. They have been using the Morgan stallion Gallant Chief on grade mares of all descriptions and getting some rather nice colts. An especially nice two year old filly caught our eye, as did several other good yearlings and two-year olds.

Morgan Versatility Show Grows

MANITO (Lippitt Mandate x Vixen) Champion Morgan Versatility Show, at Newtown, Pa., Wm. R. Hopkins, owner, up.

More horses and more spectators braved the chill temperatures October 15 to attend the Versatility Show sponsored at Village Farm, Newtown, Pa., by Miss Ethel Gardner "for the promotion and betterment of the Morgan Horse Breed."

Wallace L. Orcutt from W. Newbury, Mass., came down to judge the show, while Dr. Ray Fessenden served as an announcer and Albert Brouillet as steward. Local entrants found real competition when Ruth Mercer appeared with Just-A-Sweetheart and Richard Nelson came with U. S. Panetz from Massachusetts.

The championship of the show, which is based on points accumulated by horses while competing in the 12 events offered to demonstrate Morgan versatility, went to Manito, 12 year old chestnut stallion by Lippitt Mandate—Vixen, owned by William R. Hopkins of Green Village, N. J., and shown by Ann Hopkins. He preceded his point championship by winning the western pleasure and jumping blues, as well as placing well in all 12 classes at the show from model and racing to pulling.

The hard to beat Just-A-Sweetheart, by Upwey Ben Don-Seneca Sweetheart pulled into the reserve championship of the show after taking four blues, including the stock horse and running race. She also placed well in four other classes.

Probably the most successful entrant from points of wins compared to classes entered was Mandate's Peggy Lou, owned and shown by Mrs. Aye-lien Richards of Pine City, N. Y. The chestnut daughter of Lippitt Mandate-Ruthven's Nancy Ann won both the saddle and harness show classes as well as the trotting race and pleasure driving, plus two other seconds, to be placed third in the final championship point ratings. Other of the top placing horses entered eight or more classes.

U. S. Panetz from Amherst, Mass., made the trip worthwhile as he pulled impressively to win that class after picking up several seconds and other ribbons. This put the bay son of Panfield Inez in fourth place for total points accumulated.

Shown by Keith Coddington of Martinsville, N. J., Nera Bellezza Pepper was particularly successful in western classes to wind up fifth in points for the show. She is a chestnut daughter of Brown Pepper-Verran's Dixie Ann. Next in points was The Third Man, bay gelding by Lippitt Mandate-Dottie Irene, owned by Jo Costantino of Malvern, Pa., who placed well in four classes.

Rounding out the final point placements were Decoration Lady and Ran Bunctious. Decoration Lady, by Flying Jubilee-Sentola, owned by Gloria Weintrub of Philadelphia, placed in three classes. Ran Bunctious, bay stallion by Black Ran-Bo—Whippoorwill Melody, owned by Mrs. Douglas Dalrymple of Elmira, N. Y., won the model class and placed well in several other events. Several other nice horses appeared at the show to win or place high, but failed to enter enough events to compile a point score of note. These included Tastee's Indian Summer, Nancita's Romance, Duces Wild, Bay State Bonfire, Flyette, and Gay Archie.

Miss Gardner was gratified by the good performing horses which appeared, and pointed out that had some of the better horses from the 1960 show or others which people wanted to bring but couldn't due to conflicting commitments, appeared the competition would have been really keen. As it was the show was very well-received by the spectators who filled every available space at ringside and seemed impressed by the versatility of the breed as demonstrated that day.

The President's Trophy from the Mid-Atlantic Morgan Horse Club must be won three times for permanent possession. First leg is now held by Mr. William Hopkins', Manito.

Oregon Morgan News

By JEANNE VAN DEUSEN

Looks like all the Morgan owners must have felt the first rain drop and went into hibernation for the winter. Come on now, dig out a little and let us know what you're doing. You're still feeding them aren't you? Hasn't that prancing young stallion stepped on your toe by accident or otherwise lately? Which reminds me of a story—There is a prancing young stallion in southern Oregon that has more pep and energy than any one stallion should have. Seems I heard tell a short time ago how he managed to work the latch open on his stall and took a short stroll out in a forbidden pasture. When the lady of the house heard pounding hoofs and looked out the window, lo and behold, here he is racing up and down where he had no business being. She dashed out and fortunately got a hold of his halter. Being nice and young and full of energy he didn't much care about being confined again and was on his hind legs more than he was on all fours, dragging her up with him each time. Not being dressed for such strenuous doings, the tired zipper on her pedal pushers gave up the ghost and while he reared up with her hanging on to his halter, her pants decided to go down. What a decision that must

Morgan - Half-Morgan Interest

By Mrs. Wm. MATTHEWS
Rte. 4, Box 2764, Vista, Calif.

DUSTY MORGAN, registered two and one-half year old Morgan, owned by Mr. and Mrs. Wm. W. Matthews of Vista, Calif.

Morgan horse interest is increasing rapidly in San Diego County. The Morgan horse is becoming more popular in more ways than one, not only for showing at halter, but for making western pleasure and stock horses out of this wonderful breed.

The most interesting subject lately is, how many half-Morgan horses there are, that are really half-Morgans?

We have found there are several people who have grade horses who supposedly are half-Morgans but they do not have any idea of the sire or dam of the horse. If they look part mule or whatever their type may be it doesn't matter, because if you ask them what the horse's breeding is, it's always half something and more than likely, they will say it's half Morgan.

I don't know how many times we have been at open horse shows or even Morgan shows, when someone hasn't said, "What type of horse is that," and if it happens to be a Morgan, they say, "Oh that's not a Morgan horse, they have big heads, long ears, and they only use Morgans for plow horses." They actually think of a Morgan as being a Clydesdale type horse.

Believe me we have met many a person who has been amazed at what a good looking horse a Morgan horse is, and the ability they have to do anything you want to train them for.

Of course we all want pure bred Morgans but not everyone can have a purebred Morgan to start with, so let's do the next best thing and have a good registered half-Morgan.

If we can get enough people interested in their half-Morgans to get them registered, then eventually it will create more interest in getting purebred Morgans, also, maybe we can get a half-Morgan class in a show once in a while.

Our interest is in both purebred and half-Morgans because we have a half Morgan and a registered Morgan mare and a registered Morgan filly.

We purchased our Morgan mare two years ago with a little horse colt at her side. He was a little white colt sired by a Palomino stallion. Actually our main interest was the mare and we didn't plan on keeping the colt after weaning time, as we just wanted to have registered Morgans.

We named the colt Dusty Morgan and after we weaned him, we decided to keep him for a while, as he was looking more like a Morgan every day. We registered him in the Palomino Horse Breed of America and started showing him at halter and he did very well.

Well, Dusty is two and a half years old now and we still own him and he is a beautiful horse. We sent him to Bob and Marjorie Riding of Lakeside, Calif. exactly seven weeks ago (as a gelding) and they have been training him for western pleasure. They took him to the Ponoma Fair to the All-Palomino Show, his very first show under saddle and he placed third in a class of eleven. We believe Dusty did justice for the Morgans by showing in a class with such a short training period. He had many admirers and there were many people inquiring about his breeding and we were proud to say he is part Morgan.

We have just registered Dusty in the Half-Morgan Registry and would like to see other half-Morgan owners do the same.

Our club, The Morgan Horse Breeders and Exhibitors Assn. are not only interested in the purebred Morgan, but also the half-Morgans. We would like to have shows not only for the registered Morgans alone but have half-Morgan classes also.

We would like to thank Mr. J. C. Abbett of the American Part Blood

Horse Registry for being so prompt on registering our half-Morgan and for the nice letter we received pertaining to Dusty Morgan and our new Morgan Horse Breeders and Exhibitors Assn.

Plan Sale of Descendants of Ulendon

By CAROL CHEVALIER

Lyman and Ruth Orcutt of Orcland Farms in West Newbury, Mass., are making tentative plans for an Annual Spring Sale of descendants of their famous stallion Ulendon (Ulysses x Allenda). The Sale would be held around Memorial Day week-end at the Topsfield Fairgrounds in Topsfield, Mass.

The one requirement would be that on one side or the other, the animal would have to trace to Ulendon. The ages of the consigned animals would be from yearlings to mature horses; this will in no way interfere with the Annual Weanling Sale at Green Meadows Farm.

Consignors would be allowed one bid on their own animal and would be charged a nominal fee to cover sale expenses. The remainder would be turned over to the Morgan Horse Club for Breed Promotional Work.

Lyman feels that 20 or 25 top animals would be the limit — stressing quality instead of quantity. This would be a great opportunity for breeders who have saleable animals of all ages and would provide an excellent selection for potential buyers. They would welcome any thoughts and opinions regarding this sale.

Mrs. Charles Akes of the Divide Ranch, Joseph, Oregon, tells us they have sold two weanlings, Char-El Midge and Char-El Merry K to Harry and Jim Crowdey of Coquilla, Oregon; both are by the Akes' stallion Shawalla Divide. The new owners were hunting deer in the area of the Divide Ranch, saw the Akes' mares and foals on the open range, became interested and made arrangements to buy the two fillies before they left. The Akes have bought two more broodmares in California which brings their band up to 23 registered Morgans.

Mrs. Robert Milne of the Bo'dot Stables, Snohomish, Washington, writes that three of their Morgans, Lad of Bo'dot, Skagit Nika and Bonnie of Bo'dot, have been chosen by Mr. Haakon Torgersen of Kristiansund, Norway Managing Director of Algea Produkter, to advertise their product and will be pictured in their brochure which will be distributed in 19 different countries.

Welcome Home — Billy Burkland returns to Hylee Farms

Having spent a few months visiting famed relatives, and attending the excellent Bob Orcutt School for Horses, Billy Burkland is back home in Wisconsin. This dark chestnut five year old son of Gay Dancer and Vigilda Burkland looks sharp as a razor and can really use himself. He has precision like trot and good steady mouth attributed to Bob Orcutt's training, and will be shown in the Morgan classes next season by Jacquelyn L. Behling, soooo watch out!

Father is baby sitting — Roy C. Clark Farm

Drove over to see Roy and Jan Clark at Beaver Dam, Wis., the other day. Being good horsemen they soon realized that our anxious looks towards the pasture meant an end to the "human chit-chat" and we headed down to see the Morgans. HyLee's Windsong (Max Hi Ho Kid—HyLee's Lady Justin) and baby daughter (as yet unnamed) were over in the willows by the lake, while Mother Fillaine (Fillmore - Moraine) grazed at the opposite end of the field. The arrangement seemed satisfactory to all three horses, and I understand "Windy" has had charge of the foal since birth. Don't get me wrong, Fillaine isn't neglecting her matronly duties, she still serves meals on a regular schedule. The filly is a wonderful combination of sire and dam, being chestnut, compact, with a lovely head and superb legs.

Cochise Movem Wigwam — Emerald Acres, Manteno, Ill.

Cochise, the handsome black son of Skychief and Archie's Nekomia has been sold to the Morrells of Tamarlei Morgan Farm at Brattleboro, Vermont. This young stallion proved himself a top contender in pleasure and conformation divisions in this area, and I Waseka's Nocturne. They also have the mare Leadalect (Orcland Leader x Glendalect) and her filly, Melinda — and I'm sorry I don't know the sire.

Mr. and Mrs. Darwin S. Morse of Green Meads Farm in Richmond have purchased the good mare, Pavlova (Silverfield x Ashdaisy) from Mrs. F. O. Davis.

Tormenta (Mentor x Mayphil) and owned by the Joe Hoyts of Chillicothe, Ohio has a stud foal by Gay Dancer at her side. Tormenta will be remembered as the two year old filly who was Grand Champion Mare at the National when owned by the David Brocketts.

The Bob Orcuts have named their Rafinesque x Betty Burkland filly Rafinette and are more than pleased with her.

NEW HAMPSHIRE

Although their horse barn burned to the ground, the University of N. H. must be very thankful that all the horses were saved. It must have been a terrifying experience.

Kay Booth reports that her two mares are both in foal. Deerfield Lady Oakland is in foal to Orcland Dondarling and April Caprice (Gay Dancer x Dorset's Proud Lady) is in foal to Townshend Vigilect.

The Jack Lessards are the new owners of Hillcrest Leader (Orcland Leader x Bay State Victress) purchased from the John Proctors of Topsfield, Mass.

VERMONT

The Justine Morgan Farm of Dana Kelley's in Woodstock has been an active place this fall. After spending a month at Dr. Robert Orcut's, his bay mare, Lippit Royalton Nekomia was returned home and used for several trail rides along with Royalton Justine Darling. His young two year old, Royalton Bob Woodstock spent two months with Joe Arigo and was schooled in driving on busy streets around super markets and getting used to things in general.

am sure he will continue his winning ways for his new owners. It is always difficult for a breeder to part with a horse he has watched grow up, doubly so if he is a Morgan. So Norine, cheer up, and welcome to the CLUB.

Bonus Baby — Top Brass Morgan Farm, Huntley, Ill.

I am beginning to wonder just what kind of a star this Heitman fellow was born under. His chestnut mare Consent (Congo-Highland Jean) delivered a fine filly foal sired by Kings-Haven Gunsmoke (Billy Burkland-HyLee's Lady Maudeen). I understand that this "bonus baby" was unexpected, but of course most welcome. Gordon is especially high on Brass Buttons, the first offspring of HyLee's Top Brass. Hear that she looks just like her famous Papa, and will even carry his deep red color. The two above mentioned fillies will undoubtedly be under-studies to the Heitman driving team HyLee's Lady Lynn chestnut daughter of Justin Dart and Dolly Mae, and HyLee's Mary Ann chestnut daughter of Agazizz and Knora Knox.

Go west young man — HyLee Farms, Cambria, Wis.

Take a 13 year old girl who has been riding since she was three years old, and mix gently with a Morgan colt, and you will have one of the best combinations in the world. Jacquelyn L. Behling and HyLee's Torchlight (Torchfire-Illawana Marie) have been constant companions. So here again we have the age old story about parting is such sweet sorrow. (Move over, Norine). HyLee's Torchlight has been sold to Mr. George Feulner of Magna, Utah who plans to show this red chestnut yearling stallion and later head a stud with him. Torchlight is one of those rare individuals who is loaded with quality, personality, disposition, conformation and action. He comes from a line of top horses and should command a lot of attention at his new home.

(P.S. The 13 year old has taken over a full brother to this colt, and is completely tied up in him.)

Who's Who? — Mid-America Directory can tell

There just aren't too many Mid-America Morgan Directories left, so better hurry and get yours. They list nearly 200 Morgans, their sires, dams, color and age. It will tell you who has stock for sale, and how to get to the farm, or how to reach them by phone. Also lets you know which stallions are standing in this area. It is invaluable as a guide and reference. You can get your directory from Mrs. Earl Mac-Michael, Reeseville, Wisconsin, price 75 cents.

Merry Christmas — Happy New Year

The Mid-America Club wishes to extend the best of holiday cheer to everyone, everywhere. May 1962 bring to all of you, your every dream come true.

I would like to take this opportunity to thank all of you who have helped me write this column, those of you who have kept the news rolling in, and especially Doris Norton who has taken over this column for me when things got too busy around here.

Now is a good time to get your membership for 1962 in to our Secretary, Doris Norton, Monroe, Wis. Join us in our fun in the forthcoming year.

have been, she couldn't let go of him to hold her pants up and she couldn't keep her pants up and hold onto him at the same time. Course this being in the summer time and having a few head of milk cows around and knowing the condition of the — shall we say barnyard pies from said milk cows — and being too busy to even think about where she was walking, no words can describe her feelings (or the condition of the air around her) when she felt the nice fresh barnyard pie ooze around her feet encased only in the modern shoes called throngs. What an opportunity for a movie camera with sound. Bet we wouldn't hear a peep out of her for quite a while but would like to know whether she just kicked her pants off or let Aranafield go while she made repairs. How about it Ruth, which one won, Aranafield, or your modesty.

Morgans Changing Pastures

Dr. C. D. Parkinson of Eugene recently purchased a weanling stud colt by Parade from the Fergusons of Rhode Island. Am anxious to see him as we understand he is another flashy chestnut with white mane and tail.

The Paul Smiths of Langlois have a new mare purchased from California name of Annie Murphy. They also have their stallion, Sanborn, in training with Ralph Folger of Grants Pass.

The Phil Morrisons sold a weanling filly to the Bob Finks of Talent. She is a dark chestnut with white sock and blaze out of Abonette Primrose and Sonoma.

Jeanne van Deusen sold her little filly, Pondosa Papita, to the Charles Akes of Joseph who will pick her up some time in December. Papita is out of Ballerina June by Windcrest Yankee.

George and Clare Lumm of Sherwood have purchased the mare, Shallowa Dot, from Cliff Curl of Tigard, as well as a weanling filly, Thelben Easter Star from Ben and Thelma Langston of Sherwood.

Championship, 3rd out of nine. This was her first show for her new owners, and her first show as a pleasure horse, for she has been trained as a saddle Morgan. They report that they heard many favorable remarks about her from exhibitors and spectators.

The Miami Charity Horse Show (formerly the Dinner Key Show) plans to offer several Morgan classes this winter. The show is in January, so that Northern Morgan owners wintering in Florida should consider the possibility of taking some Morgans South with them.

We showed our four year old mare Carolina (Lippitt Mandate x Katie Twilight) in the October Schooling Show of the Capital Horsemen's Association here in Raleigh and were pleased that she won 3rd in the children's pleasure class (ridden by Karen Viall) and 2nd in the adult pleasure class.

The Southern Morgan owners hope that anyone travelling South who is interested in Morgans will visit them this winter. If you like, write me for a list of active Southern owners and breeders who will be proud to show you their Morgans. And send me your Southern news — Mrs. James Cole, October Farm, Wake Forest Rd., Raleigh, North Carolina.

as she trotted up to receive her ribbon. She really bounces when she trots.

Dr. King sat on the sidelines and gleefully watched his fine yearling stallion, Kings-Haven Senator win two firsts. This colt did very well last year. He's by Senator Graham out of Choquita by Pride of King; looks like a coming show horse for sure.

Another young horse who has piled up quite a show record this year is the three-year old dark bay stallion, Windcrest Play Boy. He was Reserve Grand Champion Stallion here at the fair, just another laurel added to his crown. He's never shied away from competition, having shown extensively, from Illinois to Colorado.

The Holmbrakers of Sperry, Iowa, had a good chestnut yearling stallion that made your eyes pop when he got to trotting. Think he will make quite a harness horse in another year.

Richmond, Mass., on their purchase of Vigilendon.

VIGILENDON 10911

Sire: Ulendon

Dam: Vigilda Burkland

Under the guidance of Pat Tataronis, this dark chestnut gelding was a consistent winner in Model and Pleasure Classes in such shows as the New England Morgan Show, Great Barrington Horse Show, the National Morgan Horse Show, Green Mt. All Morgan Show, Syracuse All Morgan Show, Eastern States Horse Show, and the Pennsylvania National.

He won or placed high in several local trail rides and completed and placed in the 100 Mile Trail Ride in Vermont.

For several years he attained the New England Horseman's Council High Score Awards for Morgan Pleasure, Road Hack, Trail Horse and the New England Horseman's Council Open Pleasure Class.

In his new home, I am sure he will still have many admirers and serve as an enjoyable pleasure horse for the Morses' and their grandchildren.

pleasure Morgans. This was a practical demonstration of the inherent versatility of the Morgan. Without exception, they came back from their long ride with ears forward, eager and alert. The same thing cannot be said for some of their riders, but the aroma of prime steaks sizzling on the grill soon revived them long enough to remark, "Let's do this again next year!"

It is time for us to start looking for the year's best pictures of our horses

Did you ever water your horse in a fountain? On this ride, there were several mounts thirsty enough to try it. We stopped at a camp area that looked as if it might have been in the middle of the deepest wood. Each rider dismounted to drink with reins in hand. Some of the Morgans had their heads so close to the drinking rider it looked like they were drinking simultaneously. Some of the horses drank, but some shyed back from the spouting water.

The ride concluded about 12:30 with an invitation from Dr. and Mrs. Hank Boyd to meet at their home in San Rafael for refreshments. We made quite a caravan across the Golden Gate Bridge and up Highway 101. It was very nice to sit, relax, and enjoy the lunch Louise had for us before heading on home after a full and wonderful weekend with our Morgans and club members.

Blue Ribbon Show

The California State Horsemen's Association held its 17th Annual Convention and Championship Horse Show at the San Joaquin County Fairgrounds in Stockton, October 3 through 8. On Saturday, October 7, breeding classes were held in which all ages competed. The Morgan Stallion class was sponsored by the Morgan Horse Club, Inc., New York; the Morgan Mare class by Northern California Morgan Horse Club; and the Morgan Gelding class by Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Felt, Sacramento. Trophies and ribbons were presented by Del and Jo Norton, Windsor, our president and secretary. Show results are as follows:

Morgan Mares: Won by KITTY FIELD, owned by James P. Coulter, Sacramento; 2nd, BESSIE A. FIELD, owned by Shooting Star Ranch; 3rd, MAQUEEN, owned by Mr. and Mrs. V. B. Stevenson, Ceres; 4th, SCARLET RIBBONS, owned by Floyd Monsker, Fair Oaks; 5th, DINA VERMONT, owned by Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Coleman, Lodi.

Morgan Geldings: Won by SHEIK F'S CAPTAIN, owned by Dr. and Mrs. Henry P. Boyd, San Rafael; 2nd, ECOHAUX, owned by Dr. and Mrs. Boyd; 3rd, SIERRA SUN, owned by Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Felt, Sacramento; 4th, NORSISK CHARLES, owned by Diane Stone, Modesto; 5th, LINDEN SONFIELD, owned by Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Felt.

Hoss Trades

Miss Ruth Mohr of Concord has been hunting far and wide for a Morgan mare. She finally found one practically in her own back yard. She is now the proud (and I do mean proud) owner of Molly M. who was purchased from John Pullman of Orinda.

Jay Bailey of Woodland has been quite busy trading horses lately. He purchased two Morgan mares, Abascus and Carolyn Seiters, from Ted Weiburg of Cathay and Merced. Jay has sold Maria Roseta (Muscleman x Roseta May) to B. T. Mullaney of West Linn, Oregon, and Sun Cloud Silverton (Silverton Morgan x Heather Angel Field) to Lawrence Herrera of Arcata, California.

Victor Vermont (Red Vermont x Laydee), a Morgan gelding was sold to Mrs. Rachel Brown of Sausalito by Jo Ann Stewart and Pat Swift of Olema. Incidentally, we hope to claim all three of these women as members of our club by the first of the year.

Gene Davis, Lodi, and Gerald McDonnell of Stockton have completed their 'hoss' trade with merchandise delivered. Gene Davis now owns a filly (Domino Vermont x La Bonita) and Gerald is the proud possessor of a stud colt (Rocky Bon x Diana Vermont). Now all that is left is naming them.

Mrs. LaVonne Houlton, Modesto, wrote me a very nice letter about her two Morgans which were purchased from Fran Kellstrom, Modesto. Her mare Gimma is by Danny Lu (grand-sire: Dapper Dan) out of Linn's Black Beauty. She is an excellent prospect for the trail. LaVonne says, "She'll go anywhere you point her, be it up or down or belly deep through a creek."

Viking Fury, a gelding, is registered part Morgan. He is by Norsisk out of Ginger, a grade Morgan mare of excellent conformation. He has been ridden by LaVonne's 12 year old daughter since he was 2. He won the blue ribbon for his class at the Stanislaus County 4-H Fair. "He marched along in his first parade like an old veteran who has always had drums pounding at his heels."

LaVonne says that she is quite proud of these two horses who have made a confirmed "Morganite" out of her.

I found another filly foal — and a black one at that — at the Boyds. It is Eco Littrella by Little Varagraph out of Ima Fair Lady. Eco Littrella is named for her sire's owner George Littrell of Santa Rosa.

We have another new member to add to our growing list, Mrs. Marian Butts of Carmichael. Marian owns Kathy B, a Morgan mare she purchased from Mrs. Anna Wurz of Napa some years back. Her little mare has had quite a show record too. It's really swell to have you join us, Marian.

The next business meeting of the Northern California Morgan Horse Club will be held in November in Modesto. A definite date has not yet been set. Election of new officers will take place at a January meeting.

More opinions "Here in B. C. I believe a saddle horse has got to have a good wither, which I think many Morgans have not. I hope we Canadians who are just buying into Morgans and starting to breed them get started off with good saddle horse type. Another thing which I think is very important — Morgan horse photos should not be published unless the horse is shown not stretched. Stretched horses give a false impression and people cannot tell the set of the hock and hind leg when a horse is stretched. He has nothing but a stovepipe leg to look at. If his front legs are out in front he looks as though he could be sore in front or foundered. The Morgan is an everyday using horse, let's keep him natural in every way, use him for any kind of saddle horse work (drive him too if possible), show him in all the open classes, against all comers and that is what will make him a popular horse."

Came into possession of several copies of '48 Morgan Magazines. It is amazing just how far the Morgan and the magazine has come in the past 12 years. One has an excellent photo of Mansfield on the cover. How interesting to see photos and read about some horses such as Lippitt Byfield, Blackman, Ulysses and Mentor and many more. See the prices have come up considerably on Morgans — $80 for a weanling, $250 for a mare and foal. Might be an idea to have a column in the future Morgan mags labeled "Remember When?"

The winner of this good class was Billy B. Geddes, owned by Eddie Earehart of Michigan. This young stallion put on a brilliant performance. After one pass around the ring, you realized he was the horse to beat if you could. His owner gave him a great ride. In second was Wildewood Farm's Bobolink. This young stallion was shown well by his owner, Nancy Gochee of Rome, N. Y.

The 15 hands and over class had seven entries and was topped by Waseeka's Nocturne with Orcland Ike a close second. Ike was ridden by his owner, June Brockett. Even this small class was representative of the country, as entries came from five states.

The Junior Morgan class, 4 years and under had eleven entries. Here a group of youngsters put on performances that made the old campaigners jealous. It was a sterling junior class. The blue ribbon was awarded to Mrs. DeWitt's Waseeka's Buccaneer. This good looking gelding was well ridden by Ginny Lydon. Ginny is one of the top show riders in New England. In for the red was Green Meads Marauder. This top conformation stallion was shown by Pat Tataronis.

A few sidelights of the Show:

The Voorhis's cousins have increased this year.

Mark Hanna getting a real fancy sewing job on his tack.

Groom Heitman heading his horse after the judging card was in.

Ayelen and Sally Richards rooting hard for the Irish Equitation team.

Marilyn Childs' good gelding being loaded by mistake for foreign parts. Lyman Orcutt arriving just in time to correct the error.

Brockett and Orcutt's tack stall was a very interesting maze.

Mrs. Noble's superb horsemanship in the pleasure class.

Mrs. Dalrymple practicing for Halloween.

The Andreoli's getting a new carved farm sign.

Eddie Earehart with his own special cheering section of three youngsters.

Nancy Gochee has the horse with the most beautiful tail. (Wonder if Walt Disney will make a picture of that, too!)

The grand hospitality at the Waseeka's tack stall after the stake class.

Many Morgan owners were seen in the audience, a few were the Paul Learys from New Hampshire, the Ralph Plauths from New York, the Wm. Hopkins from New Jersey, the Corleys from Vermont, the Britains from Maryland, Sandy Hunt Neifert from Pennsylvania and Mrs. Cox from Virginia, etc.

The results follow:

who have taken a very active interest in our activities during the past year. Mrs. Anderson started their Morgans with the purchase of Sandra Andrea, a year ago last summer. And last spring the Andersons added two more Morgans to their horses with the purchases of Benneldo (Nelda L. J. x Upwey King Benn), a yearling, and Funquest Woody (Lenora Felix x Flyhawk's Black Star), a two year old gelding. Mrs. Anderson drove down to Stuart Hazard's last March to pick up the Morgans. and he has been learning along with his gelding. The Andersons also have several grade horses — so they have been interested in horses long before they became Morgan owners.

Joyce Soboleski writes that their trip to Boulder to deliver their two Morgans purchased by Mr. Peterson was a very beautiful and enjoyable trip. While in Colorado they visited some of the Morgan farms in the area. Visited Mrs. Dansby and saw her Morgans (Julio, etc.) and also took a trip to Paradise Ranch where Monte Foreman is training horses.

The yearling, Peter Ethan, and the weanling filly which Vic and Joyce Soboleski trailered to Boulder are stabled at the Green Meadows Ranch which is right across the road from the Van Vleet Arabian Stud.

The Morgan club trail ride planned for the 15th of October at Milaca State Park was not well attended in spite of the beautiful weather. Other than the club members living in that vicinity, only about 8 other members (these from the Twin City area) showed up.

Beverly Staples writes that her two Morgans, Suncrest Aztex (a gelding) and Suncrest Alor (stallion), are staying in Milaca with Denis Wilson, while she is "up to her ears" in pre-veterinary medicine at the University of Minnesota. She also says that she just bought a registered springer spaniel pup and is anxiously anticipating future good times with her (both in the field and in shows to come).

Connie and I had the pleasure of showing some of our Twin City Morgans to Miss Gloria Johnston from Brandon, Manitoba, Canada. She had heard and read about Morgans, but had never really seen a registered one. After we had seen the Morgans of those Morgan owners who were home, Connie and Gloria went for a two hour ride—on our Morgans. I sincerely hope that Gloria went home with a fine impression of Morgans and their versatility and that she liked them well enough to want a Morgan for her next horse.

Still have news, but this is running so long that I'll save the rest for next month. So—thanks again to everyone who has been so helpful in writing and sending me news, and I hope you all have a very Merry Christmas and a happy, happy New Year.

wish that The Morgan Horse Magazine had a section devoted to the drawings and paintings of Morgan horses.

Members Virginia Blake and Nancy Collins went down to Southern Illinois in early September for the one hundred mile non-competitive trail ride sponsored by the Illinois State Stock Horse Association. Haven't heard what horse Virginia rode but it may have been Moonbeam's Quest, the dam of her weanling half-Morgan filly, by Caven-dish, Just Adoll. Nancy took her Morgan gelding, Caven-Glo Sun Sand, having kept him in trim last summer by riding every week-end with the Fox Valley Trail Riders, a group of which she and Virginia are both members. We hope to have more about this ride and the Morgans who were in it for next month's column, but in the meantime here is a quote from Nancy's letter:

that we just put the lead ropes over their necks and they walked up the ramp and into the truck by themselves. We arrived home at 3:00 A.M. and even though we had had a wonderful time, we were as happy as the horses to be back where we had started from. I'll never forget my first one hundred mile ride and I can hardly wait for the next one!"

Play-Day Notes

Our Fall Play-Day, held on October 8th, really lived up to its name — a day for games and fun. No one dressed up, there were no regular horse show classes and everyone relaxed and had a wonderful time. Almost everyone rode in almost every event and I heard the other day that Shirley Orlando was so stiff the next day that she had an excuse to stay home from school. Even our little cowgirl, Paulette Staehnke, admitted that it was pretty hard to walk around. However, I haven't heard that the horses were any the worse for wear.

There were races for "kids" of all ages. The dollar race was a dollar race in name only — dollars being hard to come by, we used poker chips instead. The contestants rode bareback and to make it harder, this race was placed first on the program so that the horses' backs would still be smooth and cool and slippery. Maybe you think it's easy, going at a good clip, to keep a poker chip between you and your horse's back! There were barrel races and wand weaving and even a walking race. (And next year I'd like to see a trotting race under saddle). There was "Bob for doughnuts," always a favorite. The horses must race down the field and stop directly under a row of doughnuts hanging from strings and each rider must eat his doughnut without using his hands. Paulette Staehnke was unfortunate. Her Morgan mare, Justa Trinket, being small, and Paulette being small, her doughnut stayed a tantalizing half inch from her teeth and she never did get more than a taste of the powdered sugar. Ring-spearing was a hilarious event with most of the rings staying safely where they had been hung while the spears went careening along beneath them. We tried something new this year. We called it a precision test and it was actually a simplified version of the Jenny Camp Dressage Test used last summer at the Green Mountain Horse Association Horse Trials. We made some alterations in the rules (about tack, etc.) in order that our Western riders might compete. This was won by Harry Sweet, riding Rhythm's Bimbo. Our judge, Frank Bell, made written notes on each performance, so that the riders might correct their faults. I was especially pleased, since this event was sort of "my baby," to hear from Shirley Orlando that these comments by the judge have already, in a few weeks, helped her to give her Morgan gelding, Williwah, a better ride. That is the sort of thing these tests are for.

spent some time at Dr. Orcutt's being driven double with Vigilda Jane. Dana and Bob had many pleasant early morning drives.

Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Ewell of New York State recently purchased Royalton Eric Darling (Ethan Eldon x Lippitt Darling). He will act as herd sire for their growing band of mares.

Dana has recently purchased back a mare raised by him and sold as a three year old. She is Royalton Diantha Darling (John A. Darling x Griselda Morgan). Included in the purchase from the R. H. Barbers of Northwood, N. H. was her weanling stud, Royalton Welcome, sired by Lippitt Ashmore. The mare is again in foal to Lippitt Ashmore. Both Welcome and Diantha's 1960 colt won the weanling class at the Green Mt. Show in Randolph.

Mr. and Mrs. Murry Cheseboro of Hamilton, N. Y. have purchased a young chestnut stud from Dana Kelley. Royalton Eden (Ethan Eldon x Darleen) is a full brother to R. Bob Woodstock. Darleen is the only living granddaughter of Bob B., a son of the illustrious Bob Morgan. Bob Woodstock's first foals will be due next year from Royalton Abigail Moro and Royalton Amy Ashbrook, both are daughters of Lippitt Royalton Ashbe.

ton Ashbrook Darling and Royalton Peter (Ashbrook x Royalton Elnora) have been sold to Mr. T. F. A. Bibby of Pound Ridge, N. Y. to be used as foundation stock for his new breeding farm, which will be located in Brattleboro, Vt.

Ruth Towne is very pleased at her recent sale of the weanling Towne-Ayr Gaynekoman to Maine. It is reported in more detail under the Maine news. He is by Lippitt Rob Roy out of Lippitt Gaiety. Gaiety will be with the George Ackleys for the winter in their new home in Byfield, Mass. She was bred to Bob Orcutt's Bold Venture for her 1962 foal.

Judeen Cameron Barwood reports the sale of their three year old, Noremac Scotsman to Mr. and Mrs. William Fowler of Clark's Summit, Pa. Scotty was recently gelded and will be used as a pleasure horse along with his stablemate, Dyberry Dan.

Judy and her husband have recently purchased a farm just outside White River Junction with lots of space for horses. It is on Christian Street and they would love to have visitors — she says there's plenty of room for a horse overnight, too!

The Paul Goeltzes of Brook 'N Pine in Morrisville are the new parents of (and I quote) "the cutest little filly you ever saw." Congratulations and here's another National Lead Line prospect.

The Leigh Morrells of Brattleboro seem to be running a commuter service to Illinois! They have just returned from another trip during which they purchased Emerald's Cochise (Emerald's Skychief x Archie's Nekomia) from Mr. and Mrs. Orwin Osman, Emerald Acres Morgan Farm, Manteno, Illinois. He is a three year old black stallion which they plan to use in their breeding program. They again visited with the Robert Glenns who had planned a buffet supper for several "horsey" friends — lots of talk and fun exchanging views on horses.

For those of you who have the chance to get a copy of the "Chronicle of the Horse," Friday, October 6, 1961, I suggest you do so. There is a fascinating article on the Western States Trail Ride, a 100 mile ride done in 24 hours on the same horse. There were five with Morgan blood entered out of a total of 45. An Arabian won in the amazing time of 13 hours, 2 minutes and 55 seconds. There are three compulsory one hour stops with careful veterinarian examination at each — if there is anything not quite right at these checks the horses are disqualified from continuing. I could not possibly do it justice in this amount of space but I know you will find it a truly remarkable feat. The Western Trail Ride records show the Arabian to be on top as a long distance horse. Just imagine the amount of conditioning it would take! It starts at Tahoe City, Calif. to Auburn, Calif. — elevation at Tahoe City is 6000 feet, but they descend and ascend so that only a total of 1300 feet is lost.

May I remind you that with the coming New Year there will be new foals and I would appreciate reports of them at your earliest convenience for the "New Arrivals." Very best wishes for the holiday season and good sleighing. Please mail all news items to Mrs. Donald F. Chevalier, E. Litchfield road, Harwinton, Conn.

stock horse should be one of our major objectives in contribution to the national progress of the breed. To design a reining pattern that will demonstrate the aptitude of the Morgan to show ring stock horse purposes is quite an assignment, and the committee will have advice from a well known professional trainer and (pardon) Quarter horse man. Chairman is Jan Painter. Morgan owners in the east may not appreciate the challenge this field presents. With credit where credit is due, the Quarter horse in the west has brought the show ring stock horse performance up to a fine art. He has established a standard that is very exacting, and the good ones present a smoothness of motion combined with speed and efficiency that this writer cannot possibly describe adequately. One of the primary factors of the height of achievement of the Quarter Horse in his field is the devotion to training for perfection that owners and breeders alike share, combined with many, many hours of work — matched by dollars. There are many of us in the New Mexico Club, all the while respecting this achievement, are now about to throw our hats in the ring to challenge him. Methodically, the first step is the perfection of a distinctive reining pattern—one that belongs to the Morgan horse alone. The next is the devotion of training and work that will cause a Morgan to perform this pattern without flaw. Ambitious? Definitely — but

Fully qualified to give you and your Morgan the type of training that will make riding a real pleasure. There is no greater enjoyment than in riding a horse that is well-balanced, light in hand, responsive, obedient. Basic dressage training does all this, and in doing so develops and supple the horse, enhancing his natural grace and beauty. It better prepares him to do any duty that you might ask of him, whether for hacking, jumping or showing. Plan to join one of our ten-day courses.

Morgan owners must aim for the highest, second best just won't do in this country of perfectionists! One disadvantage the Quarter Horse enjoys is the difference in the number of the breed from which to select the most talented. He has hundreds of thousands and this we can't match. However, our hat is about to fly into the ring. We hope to have our pattern ready for publication very shortly, and 1962 will see it being tried for size in the south-west.

We welcome with pride several very dedicated individuals to our membership. Mr. and Mrs. Everett Reed of Denver, Colo. are known to all Morgan owners for their great personal contribution to the success the Morgan is enjoying in the west. Mr. Reed is President of the Circle J Assn., to which most of us within the New Mexico Club also belong. The others are also well known throughout the west. Mr. and Mrs. Ray Macy of Loveland, Colo., a past President of Circle J and respected exhibitor and booster, and Mr. J. C. Connors of Englewood, Colo., Vice President of the Circle J and also familiar exhibitor. All of these people deserve a great deal of credit for the promotion and following successes of the big Western National Show. From Oshoto, Wyoming we are pleased to have Miss Patsye Brown, owner of the well known cutting mare Dee Dee Chocolate. Because the successful western trained Morgan is one of our most important goals, we are especially happy to have Miss Brown and her knowledge of cutting will be of great value in helping achieve our goal. From Las Vegas, New Mexico, the door is open to an enthusiast that doesn't own a Morgan as yet, but has plans, Mr. W. Shillinglaw.

Mr. Frank Good of Scotsdale, Arizona recently made a tour of New Mexico Morgan owners and met many in Albuquerque and Santa Fe. This was the first opportunity we had had to meet this new member, and his enthusiasm for the breed is second to none. While here he purchased the chestnut broodmare Sundo by Sunflower King out of Dot Jekyll from the W. Byers of Albuquerque. She is an exceptionally well mannered harness and saddle Morgan and will be a real pleasure to him while he awaits her April foal by the Byers' typey Rex Linsley. Recent visitors to the sunny southwest, enroute to Holbrook, Arizona via Albuquerque were the L. S. Greenwalts of Springfield, Ill. They were delivering two outstanding young Morgan mares to Mr. Everett Hinkson. One was the Greenwalt's Starfly (by Flyhawk) winner of many honors at the '61 Ill. State Fair, and the other the Ryans' Barett (by Chief Red Hawk), Ch. Futurity Yearling at this show. We were certainly sorry that their visit was so short and hope that they will be back soon for a longer one.

We are very proud of the active participation of our members and feel that all Morgan owners should know of it. At a recent meeting we resolved to establish an advertising fund for the purpose of publicizing our efforts in behalf of the breed and to support our breed magazine. The response from the membership has been remarkable — and the fund is less than a month old at this writing! With interest in the Morgan horse surging forth and eager, responsive owners to support it, it is understandable why we have accomplished so much in such a short time. Our members are indeed unusual individuals — they travel great distances to attend meetings (for instance, Miss Merchant makes a 2000 mile round trip each time and pitch in with equal fervor to support club endeavors).

Mr. Earl Skinner informs us that there will definitely be classes for Morgans at the 1962 El Paso Horse Show. He has just returned from this year's show loaded with ribbons and trophies. Earl is an exceptional trainer and showman. Having done so beautifully with the Saddle Horses and Arabians in his training, next year's Morgan classes will keep him even busier, as he has a number of very special Morgans in training also.

Our monthly publication "Poor Justin's Gazette" is available to non-members at a subscription rate of $1.00 per year. While it contains mostly items of local interest, we'll be happy to have your subscription to keep you informed of what's new in the southwest. Keep in mind our three BIG ONES for '62 . . . Crippled Children's Charity Show, Albuquerque (April), Santa Fe Horse Show, Santa Fe (August) and New Mexico State Fair, Albuquerque (September). Information or subscription address Mrs. W. Byers, 619 Pueblo Solano, N.W., Albuquerque. Prompt reply guaranteed!

Season's Greetings

High Pastures Morgan Horse Farm, Brownsville, Vermont

A few young Morgans for sale, any of which would make a fine Christmas gift. In addition, we are offering the registered Shetland mare pictured above. Age 4, black with white socks, some white in her tail. A very delightful little mare, just right for the very young ones and grandpa and grandma will love her, too!

Visitors are always welcome.

standing or slide down a steep bank on his rump if need be. I started him working cattle and he just loves it, and you have to be screwed down tight to stay on him when cutting out a steer. Next spring I'm going to jump him under flat saddle and go in a show or two. He has a two year old colt, a yearling and two weaners to his credit and four mares bred for next spring. He is doing his share as a Morgan and all the people are more than happy with their colts.

I am going to make a ten or fifteen minute movie of some of our travels, just for a project, to show a real working Morgan. There are all too few of them around from what I can see and hear. Walk, trot and canter is fine but it won't make a great horse, or sell him to a doing horseman either.

I'd just like to add that I really enjoy the Morgan Magazine, especially the informative articles from time to time and Ern's stories. After riding a Morgan for four years I know for sure I bought into the right breed and I'm sure my friend John Loewen will agree.

Good riding to you all, from

Roger Mallory
Port Alberni, B. C.

Dear Sir:

It was a Merry, "Merry-Hawk" Christmas for little, eleven year old Lynn Rider, last December, 1960. One year later, after experiencing ownership of a registered Morgan horse, Lynn is even happier than the day she received her Christmas gift: Merry-Hawk 10703, a big 9 year old, 15.3 hand, chestnut gelding. In spite of his size, Lynn and "Copper" as he is appropriately called, became good friends very quickly. The big red horse seems to love the little girl and together they are a familiar pair at the local horse shows.

Ever since the August, 1958 issue of the Morgan Horse Magazine, when a letter written by Lynn as a third grader, expressing her great desire to own a Morgan horse, appeared on page 34, I knew that Lynn would never be satisfied with any horse unless it was a Morgan. At last her dream has been fulfilled by "Copper." Together they have won many ribbons this past show season in such classes as: equitation saddle seat, 4-H fitting and grooming, 4-H English Equitation, English Trail horse, English pleasure horse, Morgan pleasure horse, road hack and open parade horse. "Copper" truly expresses the versatility of the Morgan breed. He is also proving himself to be a very capable jumper.

On November 4, 1961 at the annual awards banquet of the Windham County 4-H horse club in Pomfret, Conn., Lynn Rider walked on air from the back of the hall to the stage, where the County 4-H leader presented her with an engraved trophy for English Horse-Reserve Champion of the year, 1961. There were tears of joy in her eyes when she returned to her seat and the first thing she said was, "I can't wait to show this trophy to Copper."

This is a true love story of the big red horse and the little girl.

Yours very truly,
Mrs. W. B. Rider
(Lynn's mother)

Hossin Around

About the time Pa had her convinced those rolling leaves wouldn't hurt her, an airplane flew over, low — and dropped Pa a message. When the filly saw that white paper fluttering to the ground, Pa said she almost put him into orbit. He almost got a free ride on that plane. The message? "See the fall foliage from the air in the new Piper Colt." Pa thought it was just too much temptation for that pilot, both of them riding colts. "Guess he wanted to see if my colt could do a loop the loop, too. She sure coulda. I had to use an old fashioned instrument called the saddlehorn, and commonly referred to as grabbing leather, to stay aboard. I wasn't admiring the fall foliage for awhile there, either, even if I was up in the air."

Pa said for me to tell you Morab fanciers, you sure got a point. He likes this filly.

Collecting old postcards and greeting cards is the thing at antique shows. So, I look for horsey postcards. This usually involves thumbing through hundreds of postcards. I want to tell you something, folks. A lot of down to earth risqué humor used to go through the mails. If our teenagers received the kind of mail that teenagers sent each other at the turn of the century, we'd all be screaming "juvenile delinquency."

I used to wonder how the boys and girls met and saw each other often enough to get any romances going, when folks lived so far apart and transportation was so slow. From these old postcards I'm beginning to get the picture. "How's your brother?" "Remember me to your brother John." "I haven't seen your big brother lately. I hope he is in good health." Was this the genteel way the girls used to chase the boys?

Merry Christmas, folks.

Love,
Ma

Rocky Mountain Morgan Club

By Mrs. O. J. NEELEY

September 18 was the date of the Morgan judging at the Utah State Fair. More interest and enthusiasm was evident this year. It was announced that 90 head of Morgan horses were on exhibition compared with 15 for 1960. Some growth!

That evening after the banquet at the Newhouse Hotel in Salt Lake City the election of new officers took place. In spite of the remonstrations of Mel Frandsen against serving another year as president, he finally ended up with the title. All members insisted and even volunteered more help if Mel would stay on as President.

New officers are:
President, Mel Frandsen
Vice President, Wally Ripple
Publicity, Don Cameron
Show Committee, Dick Forsyth, Geo. Feulner, Mr. and Mrs. Bud Higgins
Incorporation, Joseph Olsen
News Reporter, Mrs. O. J. Neeley
Idaho Director, Roy Jessor
Wyoming Director, Bob Sims
Special Projects, Ern Pedler
Looks like the Mosher Bros. are salesmen "DeLuxe." Here is a partial list of their recent sales.

3 fillies to a lady in Kansas.
1 filly and 1 stallion to Charles Bronson of Tuscon, Ariz.
1 stallion foal to Ron Lisonbee of Vernal, Utah.
1 stallion and filly to Danny Loosee of Peoa, Utah.

Don Cameron reports that he is working Scottish Dawn on the cart again in preparation for the All Morgan Horse Show in Salt Lake City next July. Good luck, Don! I am going to put Hylee Heir in harness soon. I'll see you in the arena.

Word is getting around that Mosher Bros. are moving from Salt Lake City to Colorado, near Estes Park area. Good management! It will be a much shorter haul to the show next summer.

Bud Higgins, Ken Taylor and Mel Frandsen made a trip to Roy Brunk's last month to pick up a mare, Coanne, and a stallion, Mr. Wizard. They had a pleasant trip: saw the Greenwalts and their horses, Louis Pape and his horses, and Stuart Hazard and his horses at Topeka, Kansas.

Wilf Burrell of South Salt Lake City and two sons, Craig and Charles, were visitors at the Neeley Ranch, October 1.

They called at the ranch Saturday afternoon but were informed that Mrs. Neeley was at the riding arena in Teton, Idaho overseeing the 4-H contest events. The Burrells went to the arena, liked what they saw so stayed to watch until the contests were over.

Wilf suggested that it should be mentioned that a little 10 year old girl, Jenny Lynn Briggs, rode Sireson, Neeley's 14 year old stallion in the 4-H contest events Saturday afternoon. She won the 2nd year Equitation class on Sireson. When the judge requested the riders to dismount, drop reins, and step five steps away Mrs. Neeley experienced a few anxious moments, but Sireson's manners left nothing to be desired. Considering the number of horses in the arena at the time it was a real test of disposition and training. Jenny won the Morgan filly, given by the Neeleys, as the 4-H prize for best horsemanship in the county.

Wilf seemed very interested in Hylee Heir's extended pedigree. Heir is Neeley's new herd sire. He was purchased from the Behlings at Cambria, Wisconsin.

Elaine Beattie purchased a black weanling colt sired by Stetson from Ramul Dvarishkis of Hamilton Dome, Wyoming.

Ray Walker of Rexburg, Idaho, purchased a yearling stallion from the Neeleys last month. This colt was sired by Alex Allen and out of Lady Vermont by Sireson.

Wilf Burrell purchased a weanling filly by Sireson from the Neeleys a short time ago.

Bob Sims, Jud Neeley and Mrs. O. J. Neeley made a trip to the L U Sheep Ranch in search of fillies for sale. They were informed that the waiting list is full for the next two and one-half years.
