

Tucker Murdough

My name is Tucker Murdough. I'm 18 and live in Essex, Vermont. I graduated from Essex High School this past spring with high honors, finishing the year in a Co-op program through the local tech center. In addition to my rigorous riding and showing schedule, I have continued working full time at the same company, though I will be taking a 10 week break immediately following the Nationals to attend farrier school in Purcell, OK. When I return, I'll begin an apprenticeship under our our current farrier, Barry Russell. I'm really looking forward to learning everything I can under his guidance to continue to help the Morgan breed from the ground up!
